All the Wonder of Halloween

BONNER LASHES OUT AT 'FATUOUS CRITICS'

Seek to Destroy Public Gratitude

By ALEC MERRIMAN
Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Attorney-General Robert Bonner lashed out yesterday at what he termed "fatuous criticism" by CCF leader Robert Strachan and other opposition critics.

They seek to destroy public appreciation of the great things the Social Credit government has done, he said.

He spoke of "irresponsible accusation" and silliness" of charges made by opposition parties.

DESTROY APPRECIATION

"They are trying to destroy the public appreciation of what has been done," he told some 400 delegates to the B.C. Social Credit League convention meeting at PNE Garden Auditorium here.

"The people of this province are entitled to be talked to in terms of fact . . . the calibre of debate by leaders of other parties is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of this province," he boomed across the convention floor.

He called upon the Social Credit League to organize and distribute factual information and distribute it on a wide scale.

TELL THE PUBLIC

"It is your duty to be informed and tell the public the facts of this party's seven years of good government," he said.

"It is the height of silliness to hear some of the things said about public accounting," he said. "It is just silly talk to talk about irregular bookkeeping in the provincial administration. These books are available to the public accounts committee of the legislature . . . a whole army of experts in the finance department keeps the records straight . . . they simply keep the books and we tell you what they find."

ARROGANT NONSENSE

He said that anyone who charged patronage in the Socred government was talking "arrogant nonsense."

"Patronage," he said. "If the Liberals didn't invent it, the Conservatives perfected it."

Education Minister Leslie Peterson said his department is not completely satisfied with the school program of studies and indicated some changes will be made after the Chant report is received.

NO ONE KNOWS

"This year B.C. was fortunate in escaping a polio epidemic," Health Minister Eric Martin told the convention. "No one knows and we can only guess how much the Salk vaccine had to do with the number of cases," he said. He pointed out there were only 73 cases so far this year, compared with 700 in 1953.

"More and more of our people are seeing more and more of B.C. . . . and we think that is good," Recreation Minister Earle Westwood said.

Provincial Secretary and Municipal Affairs Minister Wesley Black said the government does not favor the Murison formula for a revised plan for municipal financing.

"It wouldn't work," he said.

'B.C. Socreds Deserting Grass Roots'

(Colonist Staff Reporter)

VANCOUVER — Cyril Shelford, maverick Social Credit member from Omineca, told convention delegates here yesterday that the B.C. Social Credit League is slipping away from its grass-roots organization.

He also charged that an Omineca resolution demanding an accounting of Social Credit funds had been kept from the floor of the convention for three years in a row.

THROWN OUT

"If you put in contentious resolutions and they are thrown out before coming to the convention floor, people say what is the use of coming to a convention," he said.

The Omineca resolution, he said, had asked for a five-member board of trustees to be set up to handle campaign funds. The premier would be chairman, two men would be elected by party caucus, the B.C. Social Credit president would be a member, as would the president of the women's Socred group.

IDEA APPROVED

Mr. Shelford said his idea had received the approval of the retired national Socred leader Solon Low, who had said it might not be desirable for any or all of the trustees to know where the campaign funds come from, but it was certainly comendable that they should know where the money goes.

Mr. Shelford said some of the blame for the resolution not reaching the floor must rest with league president Noel Murphy.

He nominated Mrs. Evelyn Fingarson of Vancouver-East to oppose Mr. Murphy for the presidency, but Mr. Murphy, who has been president for six years, won out in the balloting.

BROWN RE-ELECTED

Victoria Socred Archie Brown was re-elected second vice-president; Don Reiggan of Delta, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Fingarson, sixth vice-president.

He said there were too many speeches yesterday afternoon when cabinet members gave reports.

"There should be more time for resolutions and reports from local groups. Small groups are the most important part of any party.

"I would like to hear how they operate," he said.

Mr. Shelford said he does not know of any accounting now in use for Social Credit campaign funds.

He expressed amazement that resolutions were being kept from the convention floor.

Two years ago a resolution was passed asking for all resolutions to come to the floor of the convention, or a reason to be given why not.

"I just want to see the Social Credit League get as strong as it ever was," he said.

Two Trophies

Hunter with two kangaroos to his credit is Hugh Shantz of Vernon, B.C.'s speaker of the legislature now on a business trip to Australia. Mr. Shantz, MLA for North Okanagan, wrote to his home in Vernon that he had shot the two animals.

Lawmakers Sit Jan. 28

VANCOUVER — The British Columbia legislature will convene Jan. 28, Premier W. A. C. Bennett announced here last night.

It will be the fourth session of the 25th legislature of the province.

Current party standings are Social Credit 38, CCF 10, Liberal 3, Independent Labor 1.

Canadian Proposal

Radiation Plan Tabled at UN

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Canada Friday night tabled in the United Nations its proposal for a worldwide study on atomic radiation, with eight co-sponsoring countries from the Commonwealth, Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Austria, Ghana, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand and Norway were the co-sponsors. There had been prolonged behind-the-scenes negotiations with Communist countries but no co-sponsorship was obtained from that area.

The resolution tabled Friday night—worded in general terms—will likely not come up for debate in the General Assembly or committee for a week or 10 days.

Tickets Go, Go, Go

Football Frenzy Hits Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—"It's worse than during the Grey Cup," said a tired ticket seller at B.C. Lions downtown office here.

"It's been go, go, go all week. And yesterday we had people lined up at 5 a.m. waiting to get tickets. The lineup was a block long when we opened."

More than 30,000 tickets have been sold for the first Western Interprovincial Football Union playoff game ever here.

Edmonton Eskimos, in their ninth straight playoff, meet British Columbia Lions, in their first, in a two-game total-point semi-final series. Kick-off time is 2 p.m. today. The telecast will be blacked out here and in Victoria, but the game will be broadcast.

Lions general manager Herb Capozzi predicted a crowd of at least 35,000.

"We could come pretty close to the all-time record set here in the 1955 Grey Cup game. That was 39,417."

Four Arrests In Wine Theft

Saanich police had made four arrests by last night on an around-the-clock investigation being carried out on the theft of 50 gallons of wine from Growers Wine Co. Ltd., 3948 Quadra. Police have recovered 28 gallons.

Entry was discovered at 1.20 a.m. yesterday by police making their checks.

Funsters: Behave Or Else

Requesting co-operation by the public in making this a sane Halloween and purely fun for the young, police chiefs of Greater Victoria yesterday added a stinger:

"Any sign of vandalism or hoodlumism will be dealt with promptly and severely."

Police Chief John Blackstock of Victoria said every uniformed man on his force would be on duty tonight—all shifts.

Island Girl, 6, Polio Victim

Vancouver Island's 13th polio victim, six-year-old Robin Erickson of Lake Cowichan was brought to Royal Jubilee Hospital last night by her parents.

The girl did not suffer paralysis in any of her limbs and was reported in satisfactory condition at hospital. She was not placed in an iron lung.

Boy's Eye Damaged

Permanent eye damage was reported yesterday by doctors attending nine-year-old Larry Lysne, of 3204 Kingsley, who was taken to hospital Monday after a firecracker exploded in the end of a wooden penholder he was holding in his hand.

No Ottawa Ambition

Won't Leave B.C. Bennett's Pledge

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Premier Bennett yesterday told some 400 Social Credit convention delegates here he couldn't be taken away from British Columbia for the national Socred leadership, or anything else.

"There is so much to be done in the great and glorious 1960s and I am staying here to do it," he said over the thundering cheers of the delegates.

"I have lost only one election in my career. That is when I went federal and that is another reason I will never go federal again," he said.

"The only election I ever lost was when Diefenbaker was on my committee and campaigned for me," he laughed. (Continued on Page 5.)

Island Man Survives

Deadliest Known Mushroom

'I Felt My Left Side Dying'

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . . There was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body."

With these words yesterday William C. Down, of Ladysmith, tried to describe what it is like to eat three of the most poisonous variety of mushroom known. Mr. Down is believed to be the only person in the world who has eaten the deadly Amanita Russuloides . . . and miraculously lived.

Mr. Down just barely managed to hold onto life. An emetic given promptly at Nanaimo's general hospital is believed to have saved his life.

Yesterday, well again, he visited Victoria with samples of the mushrooms to have them identified by Dr. Adam Szczawinski, provincial botanist.

"I saw them by the road," Mr. Down said. "I'm very fond of mushrooms so I said to my wife that I was going to stew them.

"They were quite nice. I offered some to my wife and she said 'No, one of us has to be alive.'

"Two hours after, she was shopping in Nanaimo and I was sitting in the car. I felt sleepy and on the way home, about a mile, I got in the back of the car and laid down."

Mrs. Down drove her husband to a service station, the attendant called an ambulance and Mr. Down was taken to Nanaimo hospital.

WILLIAM C. DOWN

After the emetic Mr. Down felt better, but he went to sleep soon afterwards. He slept for 14 hours.

"I had all sorts of hallucinations," he said. "I imagined I was going to be on the TV and everyone in this world would hear me, as I had discovered the origin of man . . . he had gone to his death point and began to live again . . .

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . .

"I had one or two experiences in the First World War, coming close to death, and then people kept visiting me in my dreams. It happened again.

"Later on the skies were going to be cloudy and there was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body and I was to be born again . . . I was on a narrow path . . ."

The mushroom Mr. Down ate has a brown cap with white gills and is one of the same family as the beautiful, all-white Death Angel. It has the characteristic vulva—like a seed pod—out of which the stem grows.

Home, hale and healthy, Mr. Down has nothing but praise for the quick action which saved his life.

ALMOST nothing but praise . . . when he was recovering his strength in hospital he was offered soup for one meal—mushroom soup.

Mr. Down refused.

Williston Pledges New Look At Forest Land Reserves

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER—A new look will be taken at the government policy of placing reserves on land classed as forest land, Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston told the convention of B.C. Social Credit League here yesterday.

His statement follows a call in the Colonist by Comox MLA Dan Campbell (Social Credit) for a regional planning survey to be made of the north of Vancouver Island with a view to releasing crown land for development and settlement by private enterprise.

Mr. Campbell said there is hardly one acre available in the north Island for an individual to set up a tourist camp.

He charged that logging companies were adopting a "lord of the manor attitude."

Mr. Williston told the convention it has been the law since 1956 that forest land should not be sold.

He said a study will be made of the situation this year with a view to changing the act to handle the problem in a more realistic manner.

A resolution which will come to the convention floor today asks that all crown land within one mile of a public road be made available for public purchase.

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

WHICH is better—to burn a book or throw it on the garbage dump?

In Memphis, Tennessee, a group of American Legionnaires stopped their book-burning party when a reporter reminded them that Hitler used to burn books.

The Legionnaires—members of the Memphis Post No. 1 Youth Anti-Smut Committee—scratched their heads, confessed the reporter was right, and decided not to burn the books—which included D. H. Lawrence's "Lady Chatterley's Lover" and "Angels in the Gutter."

They threw the books on the garbage dump instead. I wonder what idea was in their heads when they made that decision. Did they feel that they were granting the books a reprieve, instead of carrying out the death-sentence at once?

* * *

Perhaps they acted on the belief that only a truly determined pursuer of obscene literature would be brave enough to snatch "Lady Chatterley" from among the grapefruit rinds and fish-heads.

Nobody of such strong character, they might argue, could be corrupted by a mere book.

That might have been the way they thought, but I doubt it. I don't believe they thought at all, beyond a vague notion that if Hitler burned books they had better not do the same, because it looked bad.

They proved themselves muddle-headed and incapable of grasping a principle. Many self-appointed guardians of public morals—perhaps most of them—are like that.

* * *

Another piece of curious reasoning is reported from Tacoma. There, the American Council of Churches criticized door-to-door Halloween collections by youngsters for the United Nations International Children's Education Fund, and asked that such funds be diverted into American public and social organizations.

As a result, doors have been slammed in the faces of children seeking "trick-or-treat" donations.

If I draw the correct impression from newspaper reports, the American Council of Churches has taken a selfish and un-Christian position. America is a rich country, and it should be able to spare some of its crumbs for children of poor nations, whose bodies and minds are half-starved.

* * *

Squabbles of this kind do not discourage Mrs. W. W. McGill, Vancouver Island representative of the world-wide Save the Children Fund, an organization that was launched in 1919 to help starved, cold and lonely children.

For six years Mrs. McGill and her colleagues have equipped Vancouver Island children with collecting tins which they have taken from door to door on Halloween week. The children have brought back $14,002 so far. This year they want $3,750 to help a home for widows and orphans in Korea.

Last year's receipts went to Mr. Kim's Beggar Boys' Home, an institution founded by a man who used to be an orphan street urchin himself. Save the Children Fund maintains an administrator, two doctors, two social workers and two nurses in Korea alone.

If Sunday school teachers and other leaders of children's groups wish to get collecting tins, they should telephone EV 4-4803.

'Can't Fight City Hall'

Maybe "you can't fight City Hall" — but salesman Donald M. Anderson, 1163 Oscar, intends to make a test case out of "misrepresentation on the city's part" concerning a parking ticket that was placed on his car behind the City Hall.

He claims he and many others in Victoria are being penalized $2.50 for illegal parking when the ticket states that the penalty is only $1.

The lot behind the City Hall is reserved for aldermen and city hall employees and Mr. Anderson does not deny he shouldn't have parked there.

"But when I went to pay the dollar as indicated on the back of the regular blue ticket, I was told that this came under another bylaw and the penalty was $2.50.

"Nevertheless, the ticket I got was not correct legal notice. It was misrepresentation."

"Now I'm just going to sit back and wait to be summonsed," he said. "I feel I can't possibly lose."

City Solicitor Terence O'Grady said last night: "It's an error in the printing, that's all.

"What they (the commissionaires) should have done was strike out the '$1' and write in $2.50'."

Inspector Brooke Douglass of the city police traffic department said the same bylaw calling for a $2.50 penalty applies also to the parking areas behind the arena and Spencerhouse.

Under arbitration, settlement is a "must" under the act by Dec. 31.

Sixteen months ago relations between the teachers and trustees was far from cordial.

At that time Greater Victoria teachers and those of 20 other school districts issued a "blacklisting" threat against the school boards. It took the intervention of a special conciliation team to bring "peace."

"Both sides are hopeful of an amicable agreement," said Mr. Gelling.

Booby-Trapped Phone Dials Burglar Alarm

MIAMI (UPI) — Dial B for burglar and catch a thief.

It's a new do-it-yourself burglar alarm system and its inventor, Carl Dachton, proved it worked by catching a 15-year-old prowler.

He dialed his home phone number to the last digit, then plugged a cork in the finger hole to hold the dial to the last number.

An almost invisible fishing line was strung across the room and tied to the cork. When a prowler entered and brushed against the line, he set off the alarm without knowing it went about his business.

Dachton was awakened by the telephone at his home. When he found the line was open with no caller, he rushed to his shop, saw the prowler inside and called police.

Strachan Pledges Phone Take-Over

SMITHERS—If a CCF government is elected in B.C. it would "take whatever action is necessary to have all telephone services in the province publicly owned," CCF leader Robert Strachan told a meeting here last night.

He said the president of the B.C. Telephone Co. admitted to a committee of the House of Commons in 1957 that his company was "a monopoly controlled in the United States."

"We know that the fantastic profits they make are hidden from the public in the 24.6 per cent profits of the parent company, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.," said Mr. Strachan.

"Because of this financial greed the public in B.C. pay the highest phone rates in the country and in spite of the fact that the company was granted permission to increase the rates no less than twice in 1958, the present Social Credit government decided not to appeal against the 16 per cent rate increase granted," he continued. "The campaign funds would no doubt suffer from such opposition."

Mr. Strachan said phone rates for the publicly owned systems of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba "are far below those in British Columbia."

Sound of Grand 'I Do' Will Fill Church Sunday

GLASFORD, Ill (UPI)—Rev. John Schlenker plans to play host to "the biggest mass demonstration of love and romance ever held" come Sunday.

He wants all of the 300 couples he's married in 25 years at the Glasford Baptist Church to return for one great big "I do."

He started working at the project eight years ago.

Society's Volume Two Skinnier

'Register' Weeds Out 26,000

TORONTO (UPI) — Copies of the second edition of the Social Register of Canada were in the mails yesterday but the blue book was thinner by 26,000 names than the first edition last year.

Among those who did not make the blue book was its publisher, David B. Crombie.

Crombie said the errors which caused deep embarrassment to the Register's backers last year have been eliminated.

They included ascribing wives to priests, listing people who had long been dead or in some cases were in jail. Crombie said more stringent rules applied for the second edition and the proof reading was also better.

"There's been a big shakedown," Crombie said.

Teachers, Trustees of Greater Victoria

Pay Talk Atmosphere Friendly But That's All They Agree On

Greater Victoria teachers and trustees, currently negotiating salaries, agree that "everything has been on a very friendly basis" — but that's all they agree on.

The 725 School District No. 61 teachers, who even trustees' representative W. C. Gelling says are "the lowest paid on Vancouver Island," have reduced their demand from an original 21 per cent increase to 11½ per cent.

The trustees have countered with a 4 per cent offer, made up, said Mr. Gelling, of 3 per cent "to bring them up to the Island level" plus 1 per cent for the rise in the cost of living.

PRESENT SCALE

Present scale of teachers' salaries now ranges from $2,800 $7,260.

Conciliators (one chosen by each side) are being sought, it was announced yesterday in a joint statement by Mr. Gelling and Douglas Clark, chairman of the teachers' negotiating committee.

Under the new Public Schools Act, which is for the first time governing negotiations in approximately 70 B.C. school districts, conciliation is compulsory after Oct. 31.

CONTINUATION

"Conciliation, then," said Mr. Gelling, "is really just a continuation of regular negotiations." He added that the new act is a help to negotiations in that it outlines definite procedure.

"There has been no ill feeling at all," the trustee said. "It couldn't have been a friendlier atmosphere. The teachers have given us every consideration."

"I quite agree," said Mr. Clark last evening. "Things have been very cordial."

If conciliation fails to achieve a settlement by the Nov. 15 deadline, then the dispute moves to arbitration—an arbitrator for each side plus an independent chairman.

Will U.S. Seize Struck Steel Mills?

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI)—U.S. Secretary of Commerce Frederick Mueller said last night that if the steel strike were resumed after an 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction "measures would have to be taken" to keep the mills in operation.

He said he would not speculate on what the measures might be, but it was taken by some observers as a hint that the mills might be seized.

The question of government action at the end of a cooling-off period is "iffy," Mueller said. "But if the injunction is sustained, and the men go back to work, and they strike again—there would be measures that would have to be taken to insure continuity of production in the industry."

The government could not stand to let the "whole economy grind to a halt" because of a resumption in the strike, he said.

The secretary declined to give any further support to the inference drawn by reporters that the administration might order seizure of the mills if the injunction fails to end the strike threat.

He denied a published report that industry had expressed fear of a government seizure.

Mueller conferred with the nation's top businessmen in the administration's business advisory council in the afternoon.

Apples Ruined In Annapolis

HALIFAX (CP)—Two days of rain caused severe flooding in one Nova Scotia area and hit hard at fruit crops in another.

About 400 people were isolated for a time in the community of Parrsboro 75 miles north of here and high winds and drenching rain combined Sunday to cause heavy damage to the Annapolis Valley apple crop, one of the best in years.

Eisenhower on Golf Links

'No One' Running War for Allies

LONDON (AP) — Britain's wartime military chief, in secret diaries made public Friday, said General Eisenhower played golf instead of running the war at a crucial stage of the allied drive in Europe.

The statement is in the second instalment of the diaries of Field Marshal Viscount Alanbrooke, chairman of the British Chiefs of Staff at the time. His diaries and correspondence form the basis of an explosive book, "Triumph in the West," which goes on sale here Monday.

UNSATISFACTORY STATE

Alanbrooke wrote that in November, 1944, there was a "very unsatisfactory state of affairs" in France with no one running the land battle.

"Eisenhower, though supposed to be doing so, was on the golf links at Rheims, France—entirely detached and taking practically no part in running the war."

Matters got so bad that a deputation of Maj.-Gen. Sir John Whitely, a senior British officer on Eisenhower's staff, and U.S. Lt.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and others "went up to him to tell him that he must get down to it and run the war," Alanbrooke wrote.

HAGERTY

A request by Washington correspondents Friday for White House reaction to Alanbrooke's statements drew a blank from President Eisenhower's press secretary, James Hagerty.

"I don't even have a comment," Hagerty replied.

American leadership as a whole and Gen. George Marshall, U.S. Army chief of staff, drew critical comment from Alanbrooke, but he had high praise for Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the Pacific commander.

Flood Toll In Mexico Near 2,000

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexican authorities yesterday reported nearly 800 dead in cyclone-whipped floods that wiped out 10 coastal communities. They feared the final toll might rise as high as 2,000.

A bulletin issued by the presidential palace reported 600 dead an 135 critically injured in Minatitlan alone. The little mining town in Colimas State had a total population of about 900.

Earlier reports said 300 bodies had been found at Minatitlan and that the remaining inhabitants were buried under tons of mud.

Officials believed hundreds of additional victims in flooded areas would be found buried under mud and rubble.

Property and crop damage was estimated at more than $80,000,000.

National Housing Loans

SUSPENSION of federal housing loans for the remaining two months of the year, announced at Ottawa yesterday, could have been anticipated. Works Minister Walker gave as the immediate reason exhaustion of the funds set aside by the Dominion two months' earlier than expected. In all, however, 12,500 units have been financed this year, against the 10,000 units estimated. For most of the country the suspension now of federal help will make relatively little difference, because construction normally comes to a halt anyway in winter and would not resume until spring next year. Before that Parliament will be in session and, as Mr. Walker said, the program can be picked up again.

Seen against the perspective of the last two years, the federal government has been a consistent supporter of needed housing development across the nation. Federal advances by way of loans have amounted to $900,000,000 since September, 1957. The funds were allocated in successive advances of approximately $250,000,000 at a time, and spurred housing construction across Canada during that period. As recently as last July the government made a further projection of the scheme when it invited builders to take loans available up to 15 housing starts per contractor. So even though the scheme now goes into a temporary lull, Ottawa has done its part.

A survey of the nation made during the current year indicated changing conditions in some areas with respect to housing applications. In some regions construction had outstripped demand for the completed homes. In others there was a brisk demand for apartment-type units on the part of the public, but some reluctance on the part of builders to venture on large undertakings at a time when housing pressures were lessening as a result of several years of concentrated building.

Financially, too, the scheme ran into some difficulty at the bank level, when chartered banks did not have the means to participate as heavily as they had done before, due to overdemand for credit and the general shortage of funds available for this type of investment. The public likewise, though protected by insured contracts under government supervision and seal, was not lending as freely to the plan as in earlier years. So even if the federal allocation had not been used up a slow-down in housing starts would in all probability have come about.

In British Columbia, where construction is feasible and carried on during most winter months in an average year, the suspension of the scheme may bring some disappointment. On the national plane, however, what has occurred can be understood, and next spring will likely see the resumption of assisted building.

Does It Matter?

IT has always been apparent that politicians like to get credit for what they do in the interests of their constituents. Anonymous work finds no favor among them. Voters take it for granted that those they elect will do all they can to promote projects of value to their community. That is not enough for the average MP, however; he prefers that the voters should know what he does.

There is vanity in this of course, but it is of the human, excusable kind. All of us like to be praised. Mr. A. De B. McPhillips is needlessly touchy nevertheless when he thinks that Mayor Scurrah has stolen some of his thunder by revealing that a new $1,000,000 RCMP building is to be erected in Victoria. No doubt he was irked that the information came out before he was in a position to announce this himself, but the mayor took none of the credit. He simply brought back a piece of good news for the city from his trip to Ottawa, and nowhere was there the slightest hint that he had anything to do with the project.

Mr. McPhillips says that Defence Minister Pearkes and himself have been working for long months to secure this building for Victoria. That is commendable even if it was only what would be expected from them both. The new RCMP building, although not yet officially announced, will be an asset to this area and it is pleasing that its location was not some place else. Victoria needs all the public works that can be secured for it.

That after all is the main thing, and the public at large won't be too concerned over who should get the credit. The mayor was down in Ottawa trying to secure other business for this district, and since the prospects in connection therewith are none too favorable it was natural he would pass along what was in fact a piece of good news. There is probably too much fuss made in any case about holding up public announcements so that some particular individual can receive the credit.

Why Pick on Beer?

BEER parlors in Nanaimo seem to have been brought to heel by the B.C. liquor board over the 10-cent beer issue. The licences of the five parlors involved, suspended for "unsatisfactory operation," have been reinstated on condition that they resume the sale of 10-cent as well as 20-cent glasses of beer to customers who demand the smaller measure.

That was the only condition upon which the issue could be settled. The operators' actions which brought about the suspension of their licences were a challenge to the authority of the board and therefore could not be condoned in any circumstances whatever. The board is to be commended on its unswerving application of the duties imposed by statute.

Nevertheless the rebellion and subsequent capitulation of the Nanaimo operators has served to draw attention to a peculiarity in the law. This power given to the liquor board to compel beer parlors to serve beer in 10-cent glasses amounts to price-fixing by provincial law. Just why should beer be selected for this when all other commodities are free from restriction?

The board does not set the precise charge to be made for beer or hard liquor in other types of outlets. The retail prices of food which the public must have are not determined by provincial regulation. Why does the government deem it necessary to do so in the case of beer sold in parlors—a beverage which, however much it may be enjoyed by those who drink it, cannot be classed as one of life's essentials? It is a curious situation simply because it is so inconsistent with provincial policy in all other comparable matters.

Interpreting the News

The Mitterand Affair

By DAVID ROWNTREE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

THE Mitterand affair is the most melodramatic of recent events that have revived a cloak and dagger atmosphere in Paris.

Some observers say the present situation is similar to that before May 13 last year when the Algiers uprising toppled the Pflimlin government and led to the emergence of de Gaulle as saviour of the republic. Then as now the extreme right wing of French politics was ready to do anything to prevent Algeria gaining independence.

On Oct. 15, Lucien Neuwirth, a pro-Gaullist deputy, warned that "commandos of killers have crossed the Spanish frontier with lists of public figures marked for extermination." He said de Gaulle was one of the victims designated.

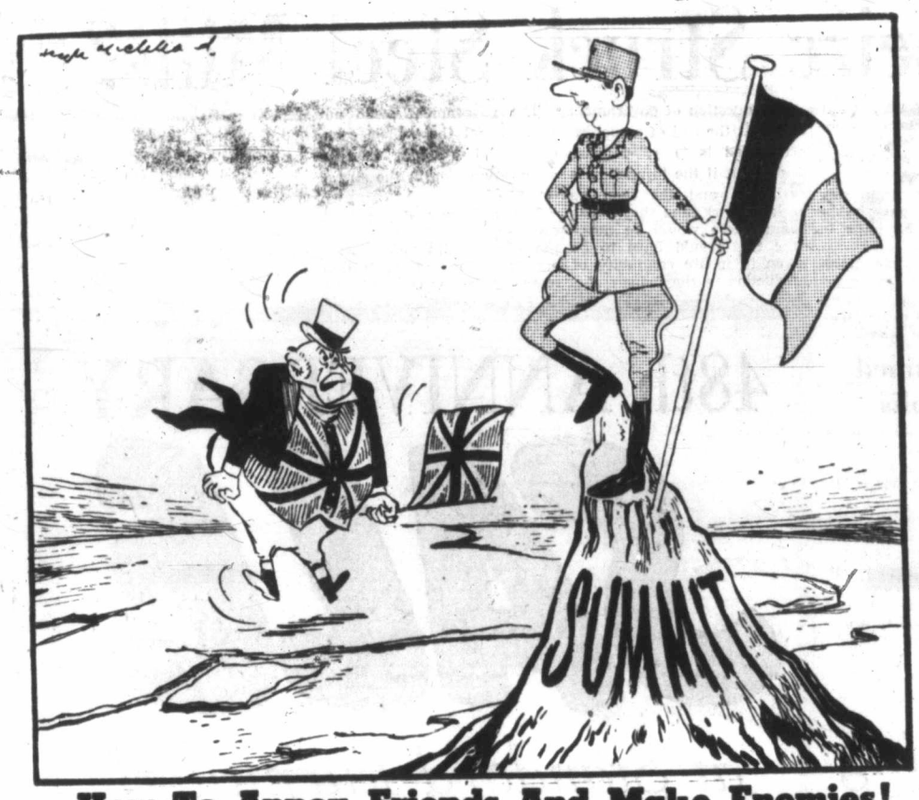

Early the next day, Senator Francois Mitterand reported, men armed with a machine-gun tried to assassinate him.

Mitterand would be a natural target for fanatical right-wingers. As minister for the interior under Premier Pierre Mendes-France, he was directly responsible for affairs in Algeria when the rebellion began in 1954. He has been in the forefront of groups seeking a liberal solution to the Algerian problem.

The melodrama was heightened last week when a former right-wing deputy, Robert Pesquet, said the shooting was a hoax. Mitterand had asked him to do it to discredit the rightists. Pesquet says he agreed to stage the mock assassination attempt to expose Mitterand.

Mitterand's version is that he had seen Pesquet before the shooting because Pesquet wanted to warn him he was marked for murder. He did not tell the police, he said, because he isn't a stool-pigeon.

All that Mitterand told the police was that he didn't know who his attackers were. Because of this discrepancy, the public prosecutor is seeking to have Mitterand's parliamentary immunity lifted so that he can be charged with contempt of justice.

How To Annoy Friends And Make Enemies!

Gerald Waring

Reports from Ottawa

ON Oct. 21 Defence Minister O'Hurley announced award of a contract to Canadian Westinghouse for production of fire control radars for the F-104G, renamed the CF-111, renamed the CF-104.

The announcement was just two months later than originally scheduled.

As a result of the delay, I am told, it will not be possible to make as much of this radar in Canada as had been originally planned. The difference will have to be made up by imports from the U.S. to keep to the schedule the Defence Department laid down for delivery of the strike-attack CF-104s.

What happened is that, on the basis of a survey of the production facilities of four Canadian firms by officials of North American Aviation (the company which developed the fire control system) the Defence Production Department decided in August that the contract should go to Westinghouse in Hamilton. Westinghouse had maintained production facilities built up over the years when it was working on the Velvet Glove and the Sparrow II air-to-air missiles, and more recently, on a hush-hush missile project. There was no doubt that Westinghouse was the best equipped of all Canadian companies to handle the fire control order.

Then one of the three unsuccessful firms, Canadian Aviation Electronics of Montreal, protested to Finance Minister Fleming because tenders had not been called, and CAE had not had an opportunity to submit a bid.

Fleming used to criticize C. D. Howe for letting contracts without bidding — and here it was happening under a Conservative government. And with a $20,000,000 contract.

Fleming intervened, and the allocation of the contract to Westinghouse was held up for two months while a new evaluation was made of the production capabilities of the four companies concerned. It simply confirmed the earlier judgment of Defence Production — that Westinghouse was incomparably better equipped for this job than were its competitors.

Despite Fleming's misgivings, the contract has been awarded by allocation, not tender. I am told it was simply impossible for the companies concerned to build up cost proposals before April. Such a delay would have thrown the CF-104 time and cost schedule completely out. The RCAF wants these planes ready for service by the end of 1960.

There is nothing about this, of course, in O'Hurley's announcement that "the successful contractor to produce the NASARR fire control radars for the CF-104 aircraft program in Canada is Canadian Westinghouse Company, Hamilton, Ontario."

His words appear to have been chosen carefully. A quick reading leaves an impression that "successful contractor" means "successful tenderer," and that Westinghouse got the job because it put in the low bid. But it wasn't that way at all.

Defence industry sources report poor results from the Canadian-American defence production sharing plan. The cards, they say, are still stacked against Canadian companies tendering on American contracts, and not much new business is moving north.

As an example of this frustration, Parke-Davis, the London pharmaceutical firm, was low bidder on a U.S. defence contract, but lost out to the second lowest bidder, a New York firm. The reason was that the U.S government had declared New York to be a "depressed area," thus granting automatic preference to bids from New York firms.

Washington Angle

Co-ordinated Defence

By MARQUIS CHILDS

THE two blocking tackles in the Western line, Konrad Adenauer and Charles de Gaulle, seem to have achieved one of their objectives. That is to make it imperative that a Western heads-of-government meeting be held to try to co-ordinate the Western position prior to any summit session with Premier Khrushchev.

But what troubled policy-makers in Washington are beginning to question is whether such a meeting can possibly reconcile the apparently irreconcilable views of Germany and France on the one hand and Great Britain and the United States on the other. Adenauer's latest pronouncement on policy, proposing that a summit with Russia omit Berlin and German reunification, has left a sense of frustration and bafflement.

The proposal that "Hamlet" be played without Hamlet has the look of deliberate obstructionism. Adenauer's concentration on disarmament is of long standing, but this is hardly an exercise than can be conducted in a vacuum sealed off from all political considerations. In fact, the belief has grown here that progress on disarmament can be made only as trust and confidence develop with the gradual negotiation of outstanding political issues such as Berlin.

As policy-makers are wryly recalling, it was scarcely more than two months ago that President Eisenhower visited Bonn and was received with a great ceremonial flourish of welcome. He held two fairly extended private talks with Adenauer and the communique at the end stressed their agreement on all outstanding issues. It was scored as another victory for Eisenhower's powers of personal persuasion.

In the light of certain long-range policy considerations being mulled over at the top level of U.S. government, the game Adenauer is playing is a dangerous one. Under the pressure of the adverse balance of payments and the outflow of gold, some basic questions are being raised about the cost of foreign aid. One of them is how long America should go on paying for the cost of American troops stationed in Europe.

To put it another way: how long should the United States subsidize the defence of a Western Europe that is enjoying booming prosperity and alleged to be taking away more and more American business? These troops for the most part are stationed in Germany.

Corollory to this question is the related one of why America should carry the full burden of economic aid to under-developed countries when a revived Europe has large capabilities that could be put to this end. West Germany has a favorable balance of payments of more than $5,000,000,000, yet Bonn has made only the most tentative gestures in the direction of participation in the West's program of economic development. Great industrial firms, such as Krupp, are doing big business in Asia, Africa and Latin America, but it is virtually all in terms of sound considerations of profit.

At the same time American armament firms are entering into deals with German firms to build arms plants and manufacture the complex hardware of electronic war. West Germany has just been granted permission to make missiles. The next step would be to give the Germans the right to provide themselves with nuclear weapons, including the warheads for their missiles. Such a step, which is likely to be pressed in the months ahead, would seem to make disarmament negotiations far more difficult.

As to France, NATO military leaders are baffled by de Gaulle's insistence that only French troops can defend French soil. This makes the coordinated defence of Western Europe by NATO all but impossible. With a force of more than 400,000 troops still in Algeria, the French contribution to NATO is a minimum of two skeleton divisions made up of new recruits.

Europe, having come to prosperity in the past decade on a tide of massive American aid, finds it hard to understand the new attitudes coming into being here. After all, the United States is still the richest country in the world, and why should we not continue to carry the burden in the underdeveloped countries?

But American policy-makers looking into the future see a political threat to all foreign aid if present trends are not corrected. The raw material of a dangerous kind of neo-isolationism will be at hand for political opportunists who want to use it. They can exploit the allegation that markets in certain industries are being lost to European competition subsidized by American dollars.

The "Buy American" policy adopted by the Development Loan Fund is hardly the way to meet this threat. But that it must be met is undeniable.

The Packsack

Of GREGORY CLARK

ONE of my old retired newspaper colleagues has lost his wife and most of his money and has no children to engage his interests in his old age. I visit him once in a while in his modest hole in the wall in a genteel boarding house, and am always astonished to find him in high spirits and unfailing good humor.

"Well," he said when I commented on this, "I have my memory as bright as a dollar, still. As you know, in my day I have been all over the world, practically. I covered assignments in Europe, Asia, Australia, South America and in most every big city in North America. I've seen the world, and met and known men in all parts of it. And to tell you the honest truth, now that I am old, I have had more sheer delight in visiting those places in memory than I had in visiting them in the flesh.

"The great mistake most people make, as far as memory goes," he said, "is to recollect how a place looked and what happened there, at the time. In the past. What I do is bear in mind that London is not something that was, but something that is. I think of all the places I have been, and know that things are going on there, full tilt, as usual. Paris? Right this minute it is as bright and spectacular and full of vim as it was 30 years ago. Tokyo, raging with people right now, not 30 years ago. The North Sea's waves have not ceased bouncing. The Alps are still there. Everything is going on, unchanged and changeless.

"Memory can be kept in the present tense by simply bearing in mind that the world is not in the past tense. Everything everywhere is going on as usual, every minute, right now. And, as if on a magic carpet, I'm there!"

From the Scriptures

But ye brethren, be not weary in well doing.—II Thessalonians, 3:13.

Great Chunky Clunky Coins

By CASSANDRA, from London

NEW ZEALAND and Australia are toying with the idea that 10 pence make a shilling, that five pence make up half a bob and that the decimal system is long, long overdue in the Commonwealth.

There is nothing to prevent our pals from down-under scrapping the present archaic British currency system and joining the rest of the world in the business of calculation in which five, 10, 20 and 100 are much more easily managed than one, four, three, six, 12 and all stations to 240 pence make a pound.

The metric system exists in part, at least, in all the major powers of the world except our own. Although it is flattering in an archaic sense to order pints of bitter and pounds of spuds and pay for them in tanners and coppers instead of centimes and cents for variants of litres and kilograms, it just doesn't make sense.

But one thing I pray for. And that is they don't reduce the size of our coinage. I may tell you that they are considering, at long range, the calling-in of the penny. The last round-up of the big D.

They are also thinking of introducing new and smaller coins such as a shrunken five-bob piece.

Never, never, let us lose our great, big, chunky, clunky coins. The weight of them, the feel of them, yes and the burden of them, is a wonderful load for the returning traveller from abroad.

After the itsy-bitsy chewed-up pieces of base-metal confetti that pass for the coinage all over the world, it is a delight to pick up our heavy-weight tokens.

You can't make much of a bang with a bandful of centimes or, for that matter, with a saxpence, but half a dozen coppers slapped down on the counter with enough vertical force can make a considerable impression.

And when you do, after the air of Baltimore, Bayreuth and Bangkok, you sure know you're home.

The world is littered with filthy paper currency of inconsequential purchasing power. At one time in Italy a portable laundry would have been a godsend to make the grimy paper script into decent tender.

In China, where I once was, a suitcase was necessary to carry the printed rubbish that meant you could have a drink and the notes had reached the stage beyond decontamination—a pestilential, indecipherable pulp.

So let's stick to the great circular iron money—soot and all.

I HAVE the displeasure of paying British Railways a cheque for £53 4s. every year for a season ticket enabling me to travel to London, a distance of 27¾ miles.

On this trail of squalor, sloth and unpunctuality I spend a total time of about 520 hours a year or the equivalent of a continuous night and day journey lasting three weeks per annum.

I have done this for a quarter of a century, except for five years in the early 40s, and have thus endured a travelling Golgotha lasting non-stop over a year.

The martyrdom of St. Cassandra has indeed been a protracted and agonizing affair. I am, of course, not alone in this, for well over 300,000,000 season ticket journeys are paid for every year. Twenty-five years ago the journey was quieter, cheaper and cleaner. Excelsior!

★ ★ ★

Now Sir Brian Robertson, who for six long years has been the chairman of the British Transport Commission, has announced increased rail fares from 2d. per mile to 2¼d. a mile.

The trend is ever up and up and up, with the exception of a nice skid back in 1952. The three-monthly season rate on my particular Living-Death Railway has risen from £9 6s. 6d. in October, 1950, to the new rate, effective next month, of £15 8s. Some increase.

I know of no expenditure which is more painful to me.

Income tax, compared with this unpleasant purchase of grime, discomfort and lost time is a pleasure. You know at least that you are supporting some things that are worthwhile.

The answer of British Railways is, of course, that it will come out all right in the end. They spend considerable sums of their revenue issuing posters in the form of progress reports. They even choose selected sites where their lines cross roads liable to be jammed with traffic to jeer on hoardings at the traveling public, saying that it is "Quicker by Rail." My own local line boasts one of these posters plastered on a railway bridge that has borne thousands of trains that are disgracefully and culpably late on their way to their destinations.

The final insult in the latest extortions is that if you take a journey in excess of 300 miles the rate remains at 2d per mile—but only for the excess.

In other words, put up with us on a bigger scale and we won't charge you more.

To coin a phrase: "What a way to run a railway!"

'Competence' Pay Scale

Salary Plan Blueprinted By Trustees

B.C. School Trustees' Association will meet before the end of the year to consider a recent proposal by the B.C. Teachers' Federation that teachers be paid by classification rather than by seniority.

The proposal was that teachers be placed in one of three classifications — instructor, teacher and professional teacher—and be paid accordingly, scrapping the present seniority system.

"We were formulating a similar plan of our own," said Mrs. Marion Ricker of Nanaimo, president of the B.C. School Trustees' Association. "When we meet, it will be to give further consideration to the federation proposal and to develop our own plan."

The meeting will include representatives from the department of education, the UBC College of Education, the trustees' association and the teachers' federation.

"The trustees' association has been making an exhaustive study of teacher competence for three years or more with the object of obtaining better teaching for our children," Mrs. Ricker said.

"This has included merit rating, subsidies for teachers in training, salary incentives for teachers receiving improved certificates, and so on.

"As a result of these studies the association developed a plan for a professional scale under which teachers obtaining degrees and advancing in qualification would also advance in salary.

"This plan was placed before the department of education for study last August to bring it to the point where we could discuss it with teachers and with the College of Education.

"We have always been opposed to a system of paying teachers according to rigid seniority, without regard to competence. We are glad to see teachers thinking along similar lines. Perhaps we are on the right track now."

Rural Power Program Known Soon

VANCOUVER (CP)— Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston said Friday he expects to announce within two or three weeks a new program for rural electrification in British Columbia.

Mr. Williston told the B.C. Social Credit League convention he could not announce details of the program, but it would enable many more farmers in the province to have electricity.

In Memory of Service

This stone seat, commemorating the life of Robert Service and the time he spent in the Cowichan Valley from 1894 to 1904, may be unveiled by his widow or daughter if they are in the district in the near future. Playing on the monument at Cowichan Bay that was built by the Prevost Post, Native Sons, is Alexander Thompson, 2, of Duncan.—(Colonist photo by Charles Thompson.)

Snore Cure Campaign Starts

500 Teams Will Sleep for Science

★ ★ ★

LONDON (AP) — About 500 volunteers, mainly husbands and wives, formed ranks Friday for a war on the snore. The campaign, perhaps the softest in history, will be fought out entirely in bed. It will last six weeks.

When it is over, the magazine Family Doctor hopes to have scored a victory over one of the world's most persistent domestic and social hazards.

Snoring is caused, in the main, by vibrations of the uvula as the perpetrator breathes in and out while in the sleeping posture. The uvula? That's the small flap of flesh hanging down from the soft palate, at the back of the mouth.

Recently an anonymous experimenter devised a set of pre-sleep exercises for the jaw and throat muscles which appeared to act as a muffler on snoring.

He sent his findings to Dr. Harvey Flack, editor of Family Doctor. Dr. Flack, himself a non-snorer or so he believes, called for volunteers.

The selected volunteers are being supplied with two forms.

Form No. 1 consists of 20 questions about the snorer's sleeping habits, such as "Is mouth open?" and "Is it a vibrating snore or a clicking sound?"

Form No. 2 contains space for a two-week snoring record to be kept by the husband, or wife, as the case may be.

Veteran Leaves Politics

WINNIPEG (CP)—A political career that has had many ups and downs since it started in 1926 will end Jan. 15 when Errick F. Willis becomes lieutenant-governor of Manitoba.

The 63-year-old veteran campaigner will be out of political battles for the first time since his youth.

In his time, he has been a member of Parliament, leader of the Manitoba Progressive Conservative party, cabinet minister in a provincial coalition government dominated by the Liberal-Progressives, and a cabinet minister with two portfolios in a Progressive Conservative government.

In his new job he will succeed appointee John S. McDiarmid, a cabinet colleague in coalition days.

His father was R. G. Willis, a member of the Manitoba legislature from 1922 to 1929 and leader of the provincial Conservatives from 1920 to 1922.

Mr. Willis grew up in an atmosphere of politics. He ran for Parliament in 1926 but was defeated. He won a seat in 1930.

Pay Cheque Lottery Profitable

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — One of the men nabbed in last Friday's gambling raids here had a nice sideline: He sold chances on his $100 paycheque for 50 cents each. Investigators figure he made $500 a week.

Philip Savors Tiddy-Oggies

BERKHAMSTEAD, England (Reuters)—Prince Philip, visiting schools at Berkhamstead and Hemel Hempstead, Friday displayed his special knowledge of Cornish pastries to three girl cooks.

"Know what we call those?" he asked.

The girls shook their heads.

"They's tiddy oggies," said Philip.

Later he saw open-air cooking over a camp fire.

"The bangers look as if they could do with another turn," said Philip to a boy who was frying sausages.

A 15-year-old girl bathing a three-month-old boy "loaned for the occasion" was so interested watching Philip going around the room that she forgot about the baby.

"You had better do something — otherwise he'll get frozen," the prince said.

Petitioned by Labor

Bonner Promises Action On Jailed Union Editor

VANCOUVER (CP) — Attorney-General Bonner promised Friday to act "as quickly as possible" on a petition presented to him by union members seeking release of a newspaper editor from jail.

And at the same time the members said they would continue picketing Social Credit convention headquarters here.

The petition, signed by 84 officers "of virtually all major Lower Mainland unions," asks that George North, publisher of the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union Fisherman, be released immediately from jail.

Mr. North was sentenced to 30 days in jail for contempt of court. His paper was fined $3,000 for an editorial that appeared during the strike of ironworkers this summer against the Second Narrows Bridge here, entitled: "Injunctions Won't Catch Fish, Nor Build Bridges."

Mr. Bonner told the picksters Friday he was unsure of the legal position with respect to granting executive clemencies in cases of contempt, but the government legal adviser would consider the case.

The petition argued that Mr. North was "not criminal in any sense and has an unblemished record," and "never before in the history of our country has an editor been sentenced to jail for contempt."

Soldiers New Citizens

A practising doctor and two soldiers wearing the uniform of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry were among 18 new Canadians sworn in during recent citizenship ceremonies in Victoria Courthouse.

Horst Kobs, 21, who came here with his parents five years ago from Germany, said: "It is great to be joining a vigorous young country." He joined the PPCLI in 1957.

Equally enthusiastic was Viktor Novac, 26, who came to Canada from Austria in 1954. He has served with the PPCLI for 2½ years.

Both men are stationed at Work Point Barracks.

Dr. Embert van Tilberg said: "I am very pleased to be a Canadian." Resident physician at St. Mary's Priory in Langford, he also runs his own clinic.

He received his formal training in his native Holland and interned in St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver.

Other new Canadians are Tsuneko Watanabe, Dagmara Bystedt, Alexander and Nastija Ditz, Petrus and Johanna Filippi, Elfriede Furdal, Bodo Issmer, Heinz Ofner, Gunnar Pederzen, Valentin Rupitz, Eleonora van Tilburg, Ruth Winter, Hermand and Marianne Zander.

UBCM Executive to Seek Meeting with B.C. Cabinet

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) —The executive of the Union of B.C. Municipalities decided Friday to seek a meeting with the provincial cabinet late in November to discuss proposed new legislation.

To be discussed with the cabinet are resolutions seeking new assessment legislation to eliminate "confusion and often unfairness resulting from various interpretations of the law."

Past Forgotten; What's in Store?

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — B.C. Social Credit League president Noel Murphy told Socreds in convention here yesterday that "one of the grim facts of life is that people are not interested in what has been done for them in the past, but in what was going to be done for them in the future.

"If vision, imagination and drive are any criterion, then this problem can safely be left in the hands of our premier, who, I am sure, has only really just started on the many things of benefit to B.C. he is determined to accomplish," Mr. Murphy said in his annual report.

Students' Jamboree

Three Skaters Hurt In Mishaps at Arena

Ice-skating accidents sent three teenagers to hospital last night during a two-hour students' jamboree held at Memorial Arena.

Dorothy Goodwin, 15, of 1037 Southgate, suffered a severe bump on the back of her head in a fall about 10.15 p.m. She was in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Beverly Millan, 14, of 1256 Walnut, who injured her back in a fall on the ice, was treated at Royal Jubilee Hospital.

John Martin, 14, of 1056 Deal Street was taken to St. Joseph's at 9.30 p.m. for treatment of a cut on the hand from a skate.

Won't Desert Province Bennet Pledges Rally

The premier's pronouncement of loyalty to British Columbia followed what some observers took to be a veiled invitation to the national leadership extended by Peer V. Paynter, acting president of the national Social Credit movement.

Mr. Paynter sounded the "on to Ottawa" theme of the convention and said: "Believe me if you people get behind a national leadership convention, that leader will get there . . . and it will be a leader all the people of Canada will get behind."

CAME FORWARD

Just before he had described the emergence of the Social Credit party in British Columbia and how in the time of need Premier Bennett came forward to lead the party.

"He has proved his great greatness since that time," Mr. Paynter said. "At times like this great men come to the fore to lead the people."

Mr. Paynter predicted Social Credit has "a wonderful chance at the next federal election."

ALL OVER CANADA

He called for cavalcades from all over Canada to attend the leadership convention in Ottawa next July.

The premier backed up Mr. Paynter with a biting attack on the federal government financial policies.

And he called on the delegates to "Go out and double our membership."

"Personally I don't know if there will be an election in 1960 or 1961. One thing is certain. There will be no election, in the immediate future. There is no rush to nominate candidates, but there is a rush to go out and get new members and build up Social Credit now," the premier said.

The premier was in his best form at the convention talk.

"The longer we go without an election, the stronger we become," he said.

Hodges Batted for Hoffa In Celebrity Blue Book

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gil Hodges now batting for Jimmy Hoffa.

How that unusual switch came about was told Thursday by Cleveland Amory, noted author and editor of the forthcoming International Celebrity Register, an 864-page directory that includes more than the persons usually referred to as bluebloods.

James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was scheduled to be among the 2,400 celebrities listed in the directory. "But a scream went up from industrialists," Amory told a press luncheon, "and I didn't want to make anyone sore at a new reference book."

Since the part of the book that was to include Hoffa was already in type, a search was made in the same part of the alphabet for someone who would fit.

The man picked was Hodges, veteran first-baseman for the Los Angeles Dodgers, world baseball champions.

House Ablaze, Mothers at Club

Seven Children Perish

OTTUMWA, Iowa (UPI) — Seven little children, left with a baby-sitter while their mothers sat in an after-hours "key club," died yesterday in flames which raced through a two-room home.

The baby-sitter, Sharon Ann Dooley, 14, was the only survivor. A heroic fireman, Capt. Robert Knox, 44, twice fought his way through the flames and found her huddled with the bodies of the children.

Knox got the girl out of the house, but she was in "very bad" condition with burns over her entire body.

The children's mothers learned of the fire as they sat in 2711 Club, an after-hours "key club."

Mrs. Patricia Van Horn, 28, who said her husband had left her to live on aid from dependent children payments, lost six children—Karen Rae, 9; Sharon Kay, 7; Patty Sue, 6; Le Roy, 4; Debra, 2, and Cynthia, 1. The daughter of Mrs. Lorraine Campbell, Carla, 4, also perished.

Police Chief Lester A. Canny said a faulty television set or an electrical wall switch was responsible for the blaze.

The Van Horn children's grandfather, Thomas Anderson, discovered the fire.

Police and firemen arrived just minutes after Anderson failed in an attempt to enter the burning building.

Traffic Deaths Decline

OTTAWA (CP) — Traffic deaths in Canada were cut by six per cent in the first half of this year, though the number of vehicle accidents continued to rise.

Vehicle traffic accidents claimed 1,195 lives in the January-June period compared with 1,276 a year earlier, the bureau of statistics said yesterday.

Two Youths Admit Vandalism

Two juveniles pleaded guilty in Colwood police court yesterday to wilful damage charges arising from costly vandalism two weeks ago at the Victoria Fish and Game clubhouse, Goldstream Park.

One of the two, already in custody for violation of parole, was sentenced to six months definite and 18 months indefinite at the young offenders' unit at Oakalla.

The other was remanded for preparation of a probation report and sentence.

The clubhouse and contents were damaged extensively by bullets from a .22 rifle.

Also in Colwood court Laurence Lindsay Alexander, Saanich, was fined $15 and costs under the Migratory Birds Act, for hunting after daily closing hours.

Lovely, lustrous Canadian originals that capture the enchanting delicacy of formal traditions . . . in precious silverware, the hallmark of gracious living. How richly silver reflects your own sense of style and good taste. Choose the everlasting charm of fine sterling or the enduring grace of silverplate. Your table will be far lovelier.

Much of the silver used by silversmiths for sterling and silverplate comes from Inco. Copper and nickel are also supplied by Inco in the strong nickel-silver foundation metal used in silverplate.

Although Inco is the world's largest producer of nickel, 13 other elements are also produced from the Sudbury ores—such as copper and relatively small quantities of precious metals like silver, gold, platinum and palladium. All of them have important uses in industry. That's how Inco metals serve the Canadian industries that serve you.

'New Proof' Of Volcano On the Moon

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet astronomer Nikolai Kozyrev claims further proof of his contention that there is an active volcano on the moon. He said a spectogram of the moon taken Oct. 23 registered "unusual" activity of the central peak of the Alphonse Crater.

Kozyrev said last year that this peak was an active volcano, which ran counter to Western scientists' belief that there are none on the moon.

Chinese Mass Troops On India Line

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—Indian newspapers report that Chinese troops are massed on the borders of three Himalayan states and that India is convinced the Communists intend to occupy 6,000 square miles of the Kashmir state of Ladakh.

The Hindustan Standard in a story from Darjeeling Friday says heavy concentrations of Chinese troops are near the borders of the independent states of Sikkim, Bhutan and Nepal.

The newspaper quotes authoritative sources as saying the Chinese have built a road capable of handling heavy military traffic in Tibet near the Sikkim border, and that Chinese troops are concentrated near the road.

Astronauts Ready For Space 'Now'

ROME (UPI) — A leading American space doctor said yesterday any one of the seven U.S. astronauts can take off for outer space "tomorrow" providing a space vehicle is ready.

Dr. Siegfried J. Gerathewohl made the statement in commenting on a Russian scientist's remark Thursday that a Russian now is ready to be launched into space.

"We have a man ready, too," said Gerathewohl. "In fact, seven of them."

Rays Steady Lunik Lens

LONDON (UPI) — Russian scientists used rays from the sun and reflections from the moon to aim Lunik III's camera at the far side of the moon, Tass reported yesterday.

Tass said Vladimir Siforov, of the USSR Academy of Sciences, gave some of the details in the Moscow newspaper Pravda.

"The station's rotation around its centre of gravity was stopped during the photographing with the help of a set of devices, including solar and lunar pickups, which transformed direct solar rays and the rays reflected from the moon's surface into electric signals," Tass reported.

PEAT MOSS

Canadian production of peat moss, chiefly for garden use, amounted to a record 149,000 tons in 1958.

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—A space engineer said yesterday the national space agency will launch a rocket 28,000,000 miles to Venus by the end of 1960.

Allan B. Churgin, research engineer for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said rockets are available now to carry such a space probe.

"Space exploration this year and early next year will see the launching of several dozen different satellites and probes to as far away as the vicinity of Venus," Churgin said.

Drakes' Hopes Sent Crashing Down

Drakes fullback Ken Higgs is brought crashing to earth at Royal Athletic Park last night, as were Drakes' hopes for a march to the Canadian intermediate football final. Vancouver tacklers grounding Higgs are Stan Brooks (87), Cec Stephenson (90), plus several others, unidentifiable. Joe Kurylo, (77), Drakes, is out of the play, on left. Vancouver won, 16-12.—(Colonist photo.)

Drakes' Dreams Vanish On Desperate Last Pass

By LARRY ROSE

Victoria Drakes' hopes for a fifth consecutive B.C. Intermediate Football championship were strewn all over Royal Athletic Park last night by an ex-B.C. Lion named Mike Davies.

It was Davies who completed a 55-yard pass and run play to halfback Cec Stephenson on the second to last play of the game and gave Vancouver Columbians a 16-12 win as well as a berth in the Western Canada final.

Vancouver now travels to Calgary next weekend for a sudden-death game. Winner will advance to the western final.

Had Friday's game ended 40 seconds earlier, Victoria Drakes would be making the Calgary trip.

Drakes had come from behind to grab 12-9 lead with a minute and a half remaining when playing-coach and quarterback Jack Patrick hit end Pete Turko with a 13-yard touchdown pass.

LED THE WAY

Patrick had led the way as Drakes charged 83 yards in 12 plays to apparently grab a come-from-behind victory from the under-rated Vancouver club.

The minute flag was up when Victoria kicked off to Vancouver and even when the Columbians ran the ball back to Drakes' 45-yard line it seemed like a mild threat. A 10-yard penalty to Victoria on the play set up Davies' desperate pass and the rest is history.

Losing in the final seconds is hard enough for any team to take. It was even harder for the Drakes who had soundly beaten Vancouver by scores of 20-0 and 25-6 in two league games.

DIFFERENT CLUB

Vancouver was an entirely different club Friday. Davies and 21-year-old halfback Gary Ruckman provided the initiative.

Although Davies completed only five of 18 passes he came through whenever Columbians needed it most. Ruckman carried the majority of Vancouver's rushing and did most of it by going right up the middle.

Two other Columbians had a big hand in the upset win, namely co-coaches Rod Pantages and Pete Thodos.

The pair of former WIFU players came to their club's aid whenever the Columbians got into trouble. Pantages handled the club's punting chores and showed his old form with kicks that seemed more for accuracy than distance while Thodos spelled off Davies at quarterback.

SPECTACULAR PLAY

Drakes had a 6-0 lead at the half. A spectacular 72-yard pass and run play from Patrick to halfback Red White produced a touchdown in the final minute of the first quarter.

Columbians broke the ice four minutes into the third quarter with an unconverted touchdown. That man Davies tossed a 14-yard pass to Stephenson in the end zone on a third-down situation after Vancouver had recovered a Victoria fumble.

Columbians set the stage for the hectic windup when Maurice Jones kicked a field goal from five yards out late in the quarter. Jones' kick put Vancouver ahead 9-6 after they had twice been held for no gain on the five by a strong Victoria line.

Drakes lost what was probably their best chance to win it all when Davies charged out of nowhere to hold fullback Ken Higgs at the four as Patrick elected to go for the touchdown instead of a field goal. Just five minutes later Turko put Drakes ahead for what was the club's shortest-lived lead of the year.

Patrick's pass to Turko gave him eight completions in 17 tries and Victoria a 19-18 edge in first downs.

Drakes also led Vancouver in yards rushing with 290 to 225 but the statistics meant little when Davies uncorked the winning touchdown pass.

Jones kicked the extra point and Victoria's four-year reign as B.C. champs ended seconds later when a mass of Vancouver tacklers downed Drakes' ball carrier on kickoff and final play.

About 300 fans saw the game.

Warriors Whack Canucks, 8-2; Edmonton Trims Calgary, 4-2

Vancouver Canucks, who started off by allowing only 13 goals while winning seven and tying one of their first nine games, are finding that the Western Hockey League schedule is often a great equalizer.

Playing their fourth game since Saturday, three of them away from home, the Canucks

	P	W	L	T	F	A	Pts.
Vancouver	12	8	3	1	39	28	17
VICTORIA	9	6	2	1	28	16	13
Seattle	9	5	3	1	39	25	11
Edmonton	11	5	5	1	39	43	11
Calgary	12	5	7	0	30	36	10
Winnipeg	9	3	5	1	29	28	7
Spokane	10	1	8	1	19	47	3

Last night's scores: Vancouver 2 at Winnipeg 8; Calgary 2 at Edmonton 4; Spokane 2 at Seattle 6.
Next games, tonight: VICTORIA at Spokane; Edmonton at Calgary took an 8-2 trimming from the aroused Warriors at Winnipeg last night.

It was the second defeat in the three games played on Canucks' first trip through the Prairie sector of the WHL. Goalie Hank Bassen, a standout in early-season play, has been beaten 15 times on the trip.

In a second game played on the Prairies, Edmonton's revived Flyers made it two in a row with a 4-2 decision over Calgary Stampeders at Edmonton.

Winnipeg's combination of Dick Lamoureux between sophomore Ray Brunel and veteran Steve Witiuk did most of the damage to Canucks. Witiuk had three goals and an assist, Lamoureaux two goals and an assist, and Brunel figured on four goals.

Gordie Redahl, Gerry Brisson and Barry Ross got the other Winnipeg goals while defenceman Brent Macnab and winger Bob Kabel scored for the losers.

STAYED CLOSE

Canucks stayed close until the second period, pulling even at 1-1 and 2-2 and starting the second period trailing by only 2-3. But Al Rollins, playing brilliantly in goal, balked them from there while the Warriors ran up a huge lead. It was all over by midway through the second period, Warriors piling up a 7-2 edge and holding off desperate attacks in the final 20 minutes.

Rollins stopped 26 shots without a miss in the last two periods.

Close to 4,300 Edmonton fans saw experience pay off for the Flyers, always tough on their big ice surface, where they can take full advantage of their speed.

Although there was little difference in shots on goals, Flyers were in command all the way after Len Haley raced in to score 39 seconds after Fred Hucul had given the Stamps an early lead.

The win boosted Flyers into a third-place tie with Seattle, defeat dropped the Stamps all the way from third to fifth.

Totems Win Third Straight; Comets Sink Even Lower

Seattle's champion Totems, coming on again after a bit of a slump, won their third straight Western Hockey League game last night, trouncing the trailing Spokane Comets, 6-2, before 2,866 Seattle fans.

It was the sixth straight winless game for the Comets, who have managed only a win and a tie in their first 10 starts and are already 14 points out of the lead.

Comets twice took the lead in the first period, then folded as they managed only 11 shots on goal, all of them blocked, in the last 40 minutes.

Guyle Fielder, scoring more often this season than usual, pulled Totems even early in the second period with the first of his two goals. Marc Boileau got what proved to be the winner in the last minute of the middle period, then Don Chiupka, Fielder and Pat Ginnell made it sure in the last 20 minutes.

When action had ended, three Seattle players found themselves sharing the scoring lead, each with 15 points.

Fielder added two assists to his two goals and Boileau had one assist in addition to his goal as both pulled even with veteran Rudy Filion, who made the play for Boileau's winning shot.

The Washington clubs get a visit from Victoria Cougars this weekend. Cougars play the Comets in Spokane tonight then travel over to Seattle for a Sunday game.

Horse-of-Year Race At Aqueduct Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Round Table, the millionaire horse who hasn't yet got a jockey, and Sword Dancer, the king of the three-year-olds who will be ridden by Eddie Arcaro, battle for horse-of-the-year honors today. Willie Hartack appears to be the best bet to get the payday ride on Round Table.

The fabulous money-winners and seven other horses were entered Friday for the 41st running of the $100,000-added Jockey Gold Cup over a two-mile course at Aqueduct.

Although he is the world's richest horse with $1,727,749 in earnings, Round Table lost his regular rider, Willie Shoemaker, to an upstart two-year-old. Willie was unable to break a commitment to ride Tompion in the Garden State Stakes at Camden, N.J.

The other six named for the race—which will be televised by the CBS—included Inside Tract, the 1958 winner; Dotted Line, last year's runner-up, Sinn Feiner, Promised Land, Amanullah, and Anisado.

Playoff-Wise Esks Never Lost Semis

VANCOUVER (CP) — Football fans here girded themselves for the unexpected in the first Western Interprovincial Football Union playoff game ever held here.

Playoff-wise Edmonton Eskimos tangle today with British Columbia Lions, with kickoff time set for 2 p.m. Cloudy weather with a possibility of light showers has been forecast. A record 35,000 fans are expected to take in the game.

The game will not be televised in Victoria but radio lisfeners may hear on CKWX, Vancouver. Film of game will be shown on channels 2 and 6 Sunday at noon.

Eskimos — Grey Cup champions from 1954 to 1956—have not lost a semi-final series since 1950. It is the first time Lions have reached the playoffs since joining the league six years ago.

The general good health of Eskimos on their arrival here late Friday morning sent the odds back in their favor.

A week ago Esks were favored by eight points in the opener, but a forecast by coach Wayne Robinson that Lions will go all the way cut the odds to six-to-five, take your choice.

Friday Esks were established as nine-point favorites to win the opener and 21-point favorites to win the series. Most feel Edmonton will take both games.

Both clubs went through light workouts Friday.

Both coaches were looking for a close game whether it be a high-scoring battle or a hard-knocking defensive grind.

Said Robinson: "Edmonton has a fine football team which can run or throw. We'll both be out to score quick touchdowns, but I think it will be close in both games.

"I can't say just what will happen because we both proved we can score and there is little doubt about Eskimos' fine defence. Our defensive squad has come along well in the late stages."

Said Eagle Keys, Edmonton head coach: "We're going to try to win the semi-finals with our same old offence and same old defences. If our defences can contain Lions, we think we can win.

"We don't plan to change anything, except that Miles (veteran halfback Rollie Miles) won't be able to return punts and (Oscar) Kruger will go back on that for him."

But Keys cautioned that Lions have several players who can go all the way given a chance—backs Willie Fleming and Ed Vereb and end Jerry Janes.

BIGGEST HEADACHE

Jackie Parker, who scored 42 points in the last two games between the clubs, will be one of Lions' biggest headaches whether he works from the quarterback or halfback slot.

"But don't forget that guy (John) Bright," said Robinson. "He has the ability to win any game by himself and Joe-Bob Smith is one of the league's best pass-catching halfbacks."

While Robinson has had troubles with an on-and-off offence, Eskimos have expressed some concern about their defence which gave up almost as many points in its last four games as it did in the first 12.

STIFF NECK

Miles still is hampered by a stiff neck suffered in a collision one week ago in Edmonton's last league game, while ace tackler Roger Nelson has shoulder and ankle troubles and Kruger and guard Mike Kmech have minor ailments. All are ready for today's game.

Only fullback Joe Yamauchi, suffering charley horses in his left leg, will miss the game for Lions.

Foot injuries suffered by Sonny Homer and Baz Nagle, a pair of defensive backs, have healed sufficiently to allow them to play. By Bailey, another fullback, is almost fully recovered from a knee injury and will share offensive duties with Bill Britton.

Britton will drop into the defensive unit should either Nagle or Homer run in to more troubles.

The Ox Marches On With Split Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Florentino (The Ox) Fernandez kept marching forward with superior strength and heavier firing power Friday night to win a split 10-round decision over Gaspar Ortega for his 22nd straight victory.

It was the unbeaten Cuban's second straight over the Mexican Indian whom he had dropped twice while winning a unanimous decision Sept. 11 at Miami Beach. Fernandez, a wild and savage puncher, couldn't floor Ortega Friday night in a bitter battle at Madison Square Garden.

They fought after the bell in the second and 10th rounds as the crowd of 4,500 paying $11,000 waved Mexican and Cuban flags and chanted in unison, "Fer-nan-dino" and "Or-tega."

Judge Frank Forbes scored it 6-2-2 for Fernandez and judge Jack Gordon scored it in Fernandez' favor 5-4-1. Referee Al Berl scored it 5-4-1 in favor of Ortega. The A.P. card was 6-3-1 for Fernandez. A quick ringside poll showed 12 newsmen thought Fernandez won and one thought it was a draw.

This was the first fight in which Fernandez did not drop his opponent at least once. He had stopped 16 in a row before Ortega went the route with him last month.

Nats Soar To NBA Win

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hot shooting Friday night put the Syracuse Nationals in command early in the game and they zoomed to a 136-127 National Basketball Association victory over Cincinnati's Royals despite a 47-point one-man show by Jack Twyman.

Larry Castello sparked the hot shooting Nationals with 29 points. The victory put Syracuse in third place in the Eastern Division. Cincinnati, with a 2-2 mark, is second in the Western Division.

Bride Catches Dinner

Coho Bops Duck

COWICHAN BAY—A fisherman here caught himself a mighty fine specimen of duck recently here—with the help of the fish.

Such was the case Thursday morning when a high-flying coho popped out of the water into the path of some low-flying ducks.

Fishing guide Phil McMillan, 20, picked up the "bag," one duck that had broken its neck when it hit the fish and then drowned.

"It's the first time I've seen fish so thick that they were bumping into the ducks," commented one of the four fishermen with the guide, A. T. Warnken of Vancouver.

Other members of the party were Harry and Robert Johnston of Seattle, and Roy Durante, Vancouver.

The same afternoon, reports Earl McMillan, owner of Anchor Marina, a couple on their honeymoon heading for Victoria for their wedding supper stopped to go fishing.

They both had reels and lines out when the husband got a strike and reeled it in, but the line broke. It was snagged by the little woman on her line.

"They said their parents were coming from England and that the fish would be the main course at the wedding dinner," said Mr. McMillan.

Japanese Interested in Series

Japanese baseball officials have expressed keen interest in a proposed Pacific World Series — an idea brought forth Thursday at the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast League.

They said, however, that it would take a year or two before any such series could be worked out properly.

Fujio Nakazawa, president of the Japanese Pacific League, pointed out that a four-club series, including the PCL, Hawaii, the Phillipines and Japan was "out of the question" now because there are no professional leagues in Hawaii and the Phillipines.

A series between the winning PCL team and the Japanese champions is unlikely next season because an unnamed major league team is visiting Japan, said Nakazawa.

Vic High's Basket Heroes Seeking Second B.C. Crown

By STEVEN HORN

Basketball season is rolling around again, and, of course, interest at Victoria High School is centered on the Totems. Although this season's team is younger than the B.C. champions of last season, it is expected that training and practice will pay off for this team in the form of another B.C. title in the near future.

This season's team has only three holdovers from last season, Keith Hart, Bill Hobbis and John Balloch, one of whom is likely to be elected captain this season. Other Grade 12 members are Bill Mundie and Steve Holborn.

Grade 11 and 10 members, who will probably be the mainstays of the team for at least two years, are Bob Harris, Mike Gallo, Ken Gregory, Neil Worboys, Oliver Goldsmith and Dennis Tusar. These six players have been performing brilliantly in practices, best indication the Totems should again be the team to beat.

First game of the season is against Mount Douglas High School at Vic High, Nov. 6.

Another successful year is in store for the Victoria High School bowling club. With some 200 registered members, the club is bowling at Capital City Bowladrome four days a week — Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 4 p.m. to 5.30 p.m.

Although bowling for the past few weeks has been only for averages, some names have already been mentioned as in contention for the top bowler crown, including Bill Atkinson, Doug Wylie, Mike Devlin, Ron Griffis, Dave Webber, Mike Sloan and Dennis Davey.

If bowling turns out as well as it has started, the Vic High bowling club stands to gain another inter-high bowling championship this spring.

Rugby enjoys a long playing season and full advantage is being taken of this fact at Vic High. Although graduation of several of last season's top players, such as Bill Gower, Ed Pottinger, Dennis Ableson, Charlie Boas and Frank Came, has affected the team considerably, this severe loss is more than made up for by the arrival of many gifted newcomers.

So far this season the team is showing up very well, the first team having defeated HMCS Venture, and the second team having beaten Oak Bay High's second team.

Soccer league play this year does not start until after Christmas, but both the senior and junior clubs have been turning out regularly for practices and, by the time Christmas rolls around, should be ready to go. Senior squad has the Colonist Cup to retain.

* * *

Victoria High's curling club, with about 70 members, has had time provided by the Victoria Curling Club on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 3.45 to 5.15 p.m.

Usually most club members use Wednesday to practice, but members can also curl on the other two days as all costs are covered by the membership fees. Winner of the CJVI Cup last season, the club should be able to retain it because of such excellent curlers as Ted Espley Jack Firkins, Roger Pick and Steve Holborn.

Shawnigan Lake School was soundly defeated by Victoria High School in a recent cross-country race on Shawnigan Lake's 4.8-mile course. Vic High runners captured the first eight positions with John Valiant first to cross the finish line in 25 minutes and 54 seconds. Alf Lincoln and Simon Prinsenberg were second and third.

Today will see the running of the Canadian Legion Race at Vic High. Tough competition is expected but Vic High should be able to repeat last year's victory.

Playoff Time For Oak Bay Juveniles

Finalists in the Vancouver Island Juvenile Football League playoffs for three straight seasons, coach Jack Groves' powerful Oak Bay Police launch their 1959 bid at Carnarvon Park Sunday afternoon against Navy.

Sunday's game will be one of two sudden-death semi-final games. Nanaimo Redmen travel to Campbell River to meet the Raiders in the other game. Winners of these contests meet in the Island final.

This year's playoff trail leads to the first provincial championship series, giving local clubs something extra to shoot for in addition to the Island crown.

B.C. final will be a home-and-home series between Island and Mainland champions, Nov. 22 and 29.

Island title will be decided in a similar series. Dates will be announced later.

Game time Sunday is 2 p.m. Receipts will be used to pay expenses for the B.C. series.

Tense Afternoon For Als, Argos

A tense afternoon is shaping up today for Toronto Argonauts and Montreal Alouettes who each have two games to worry about on the final day of the Big Four Football Union schedule.

Argos take on Ottawa Rough Riders in Toronto with a slim chance of earning a berth in the Big Four semi-final playoff a week from today.

The situation: Argos have to beat Ottawa and hope that Hamilton Tiger-Cats defeat the Alouettes who'll be playing at the same time in Montreal. The Als, now two points up on Argos, can cinch the third and last playoff slot with a win. They can lost safely only if Argos also lose.

An Argo win and an Alouette loss would leave the clubs tied on points but Argos would get the nod on their season's scoring record against the Montrealers.

Coaches Frank Clair of Ottawa and Jim Trimble of Hamilton bristle at any suggestion their teams will be taking it easy for the league windup.

Last week Ottawa turned back Toronto 18-4 and Hamilton blanked Montreal 16-0. Ottawa has won seven of their last eight games.

Next Saturday's semi-final at Ottawa will be a sudden-death affair with the winner opening a two-game, total-points final with Hamilton the following Saturday.

Prinsenberg Wins Legion Road Race

It took Simon Prinsenberg three years to win his first cross-country road race but he couldn't have picked a more opportune time than Friday.

Competing against many of his former conquerers, Prinsenberg won the three and a half mile senior division Canadian Legion race Friday while running under Victoria High School colors.

Prinsenberg's time of 17 minutes, 50 seconds, gave him a healthy margin over cadet Jim Gillespie of Royal Roads who finished second. Gillespie's time was 13 seconds slower.

Third place went to cadet Fred Ellis, also of Royal Roads.

Winner of the two and a half mile intermediate race was John Valiant of Victoria High who won a tight duel from mate Alf Lincoln. Times were 14.15 and 14.24 respectively while Grant Frewing, also of Vic High, followed Lincoln.

Jim Waldal gave Victoria High a clean sweep by winning the two-mile junior race after surviving a first lap stumble. Waldal's time was 11.42. James Lang of Shawnigan Lake placed second at 11.48, two seconds better than Phil Williams of Vic High.

A total of 84 runners competed in the races.

Export Hopes Give Bounce To Gas Stocks

TORONTO (CP) — A street rumor concerning Canada's natural gas bounced the stock market ahead in the closing minutes. Trade, however, remained dull throughout the session.

Brokers said hopes that the Federal Power Commission of the United States handing down a favorable recommendation on Canadian natural gas imports to western states apparently created the last minute excitement.

In the upward thrust, western oils, particularly those with natural gas interest, led the way. Prices added a few cents in most cases.

Industrial gains were generally fractional but they outnumbered losses at the close by a wide margin. Banks showed some signs of shaking the decline which dogged them earlier in the week as a few moved up fractions.

Western oils had a long list of gains, Bailey Selburn's 25-cent jump to $8 being one of the bigger ones. There were, however, some moderate losses sprinkled through the list.

Index gains: Industrials 1.84 to 510.67; golds .10 to 86.85; base metals .24 to 169.15; western oils .94 to 107.

Trend Reversed

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges closed with a reversal of the week's trend — banks and utilities were up on index and everything else was off.

International Paper went up ¾ at 122¾ for the biggest late gain, while Anglo Canadian Pulp made ½ at 39. MacMillan B was off ½ at 37¼.

Utilities came out ahead on the strength of quarter-point increases by Calgary Power at 97 and B.C. Power at 34½.

Pipelines were irregularly higher, Trans-Canada up ½ at 27¾. Losers included Trans-Mountain and Union Gas.

Banks remained steady.

Scattered gains were noted in Montreal Trust at 48, up 3, B.C. Forest at 13, up 1¼, and Walkers-GW at 37½, up ½.

Electronics Soar

NEW YORK (AP)—A 10½-point jump by Zenith Radio and wide gains by other electronics featured a mixed and turbulent stock market.

American Motors continued to be actively traded and was up 2¼ while Studebaker-Packard common headed the list of 15 most active stocks and fell 1⅛ to 24⅝.

Rails still lagged.

Pacific Advances

VANCOUVER — Pacific Petroleum rose $1 to $13½ in a stronger oil market. Fort St. John was also higher at 2.20 and Charter moved up to 1.23. United was 2.00, and Basco 90 cents.

Mines were out of favor and Cowichan dipped two cents to 58 cents. Bethlehem was 85 cents.

Cassiar at $11 and Silver Standard at 31 cents were among mines to make gains.

Crown Zellerbach at $20, Inland Gas at 5.75 and Trans Canada at $27⅞ were firm industrial features.

London Stock Prices

LONDON (Reuters) — The stock market was generally higher.

Gains in industrials were numerous but gilt-edged securities were somewhat lower. Many engineering issues hardened and tobacco and brewery stocks went ahead.

Oils were quiet and dollar stocks were irregular.

There was some buying of gold shares.

Grain Market

WINNIPEG (CP) — Grain prices generally were easier and somewhat irregular, especially flax, at the close as some selling was prompted by more favorable weather reports for the Prairies where harvesting has been stalled.

CHICAGO (AP) — Transactions in soybeans futures were fast and in heavy volume as dealers bid prices up about two cents a bushel most of the time on the board of trade. The grains held generally in a steady to firm range.

Export demand was good in soybeans with France in the market for 1,000,000 bushels or more.

All grains were ahead by major fractions at the close.

Montreal Bonds

MONTREAL (CP)—Convertible issues remained strong on the Montreal bond market while Canadas showed a better tone in light trading.

B.C. Electric issues were at 104¼-¾ and the Simpson's issue again was firm. Canada shorts were up five cents while longs were generally stronger.

In provincials, Quebec Hydros were 99¼-⅜ and Ontario sixes remained selling at a ¾-point premium.

QUEBEC HYDRO

Quebec province's hydro power of nearly 10,000,000 horsepower at the end of 1958 was 45 per cent of the national total.

Victoria New Industry Report:

Prospects Aren't Bright

By HARRY YOUNG
Colonist Business Editor

The prospects of getting new industries for Victoria are not particularly bright, according to John Wallace, chairman of the industrial group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

In a report to the directors, Mr. Wallace said his chamber group would require the full-time services of an industrial commissioner as well as ample funds for survey purposes, and even then he doubted if it would get results.

"I could not recommend the expenditure as a sound move for the chamber," he said.

Mr. Wallace said that much capital was being made out of Nanaimo's industrial estate, and its success in catching new industries.

* * *

"Actually Nanaimo has not managed to land any new manufacturing industry. The industrial estate there is composed largely of warehouses and service facilities, such as are appearing every other week in Victoria," he said.

He said that other B.C. communities who had been spending large sums on industrial development were also finding the going rough.

"When you have people in industrial estates like Annacis Island offering capital as well as ready-made buildings for new industries, it is not surprising that others are not meeting much success in their drives.

Mr. Wallace, however, was urged by other chamber directors not to give up hope.

* * *

W. C. Mearns of B.C. Electric suggested Mr. Wallace should invite industrial developers like Grosvenor-Laing, Webb and Knapp or Perini to look over the Victoria situation.

"I am sure they would be glad to co-operate and give advice," said Mr. Mearns.

Vice-president Justin Harbord said it was not a question of wanting new industry for Victoria, "we desperately need it."

It was deplorable, in Mr. Harbord's opinion, that "our children and grandchildren are not being given an opportunity of getting jobs in this city.

"We should have an active Chamber of Commerce committee to bring new secondary industry and commercial development to the city," he said.

Fred Hawes supported chamber action. He believed the new provincial ferry service would open up great new opportunities for industrial development on the Saanich peninsula. Mr. Wallace said he would look into the suggestion made by the directors and make a further report.

Morocco Bases Closing

U.S. Beefs-Up Turkey; Thor Production Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Turkey, ignoring Soviet threats, has agreed to let the United States establish an army missile base on its territory to beef up allied defences against Russia, the state department announced yesterday.

The announcement came shortly after the defence department cancelled one of the five squadrons of 1,500-mile air force Thor missile squadrons scheduled for Britain. No specific reason was given but the cancellation coincided with a cutback in Thor production.

The U.S. also intends to withdraw its forces from air and naval bases in Morocco. This was disclosed in an announcement of the end of the visit of Morocco's prime minister, Abdullah Ibrahim.

Presumably, the air force contingents stationed in Morocco would be shifted to the network of air bases under construction in Spain.

Clamor for 'Youth Serum'

VANCOUVER (CP)—A doctor in suburban Burnaby who has been treating three patients with a "youth serum" said yesterday he has been deluged with calls since the experiments became public.

Dr. Robert J. Hanna said inquiries have come from both laymen and physicians.

The substance is known as H3. Nikita Khrushchev is believed to be a user.

Dr. Hanna prepared the compound here on information he received from Dr. Anna Aslan, who devised the treatment at her institute of geriatrics in Bucharest, Romania. It is made from novocain and unnamed acids.

Dr. Hanna's patients are suffering from Parkinson's disease and rheumatoid arthritis.

He stressed the value of the serum is by no means proven.

"But something that is at worst harmless, and could be of great benefit, is certainly worth investigating."

Purchasing Agents Meet Wednesday

Monthly meeting of the Purchasing Agents' Association will be held at 6.15 p.m. Wednesday at the Pacific Club.

Missile Not Shelved Diefenbaker Intimates

OTTAWA (UPI)—Prime Minister Diefenbaker said yesterday there was no evidence to back a report Canada was shelving plans to obtain Lacrosse surface-to-surface guided missiles for the army.

The Lacrosse would have given Canada its first missile with nuclear capabilities.

De Gaulle, Green Confer

PARIS (UPI) — Canadian External Affairs Minister Howard Green held talks yesterday with President Charles de Gaulle, Premier Michel Debre and Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

The separate meeting with France's three top officials climaxed Green's weeklong visit to Paris.

The main purpose of the trip was to hold four days of consultations with Canadian ambassadors from all over Europe and the Mid-East.

No details of the minister's brief afternoon meeting with de Gaulle were announced.

But in the morning meeting with Couve de Murville, the ministers and their aides had a broad exchange of views on international problems, including prospects for an East-West summit meeting.

'No Word' Of Student Executions

OTTAWA (CP) — The external affairs department said Friday the government has "no information to corroborate the charge that 150 Hungarian students are being held for execution" in connection with the 1956 Hungarian anti-Communist uprising.

The statement followed reports that student groups at the University of British Columbia and the University of Toronto are circulating petitions protesting the executions.

Reports of the executions originated in the United States, where television personality Ed Sullivan appealed to Americans to write Soviet Premier Khrushchev on behalf of the students.

Union Access To Probe Decision Soon

OTTAWA (CP) — Decision was reserved Friday in Ontario Supreme Court on argument by the justice department that an injunction granted eight West Coast fishing companies Oct. 22 should be quashed.

The injunction, granted by a County Court judge sitting as judge of the Supreme Court, prohibits the justice department from giving the United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union access to evidence gathered in an anti-combines investigation of the B.C. fishing industry.

The case arises out of the prolonged investigation of practices within the B.C. fishing industry which the justice department's combines sleuths have been carrying out.

U.K.-Canada Army Car Under Study

OTTAWA (UPI) — Defence Minister George Pearkes said yesterday he was hopeful that a light armored vehicle will be developed to satisfy the needs of the British and Canadian armies.

Pearkes made the comment at the end of a two-day conference on light tracked carriers, attended by United Kingdom and Canadian army officers.

The operational requirements and military characteristics of the carriers were discussed.

The conference, called to see if standardization in this field could be achieved, included performance tests of the Canadian army's Bobcat.

Elementary School Convention

Start Them Well Teachers Urged

Elementary schools should "teach something—give a body of knowledge for later building."

They should build character, develop intellect, and be given an opportunity to do their work with a better measure of continuity, under better conditions.

SOME OF POINTS

These were some of the points developed yesterday by a panel discussing "The elementary school — its place in the community" before an intent audience of 1,000 elementary school teachers from all over Vancouver Island.

Their convention began yesterday at North Saanich High School and ends today.

Panelists, under chairmanmanship of W. V. Allester of the B.C. Teachers' Federation, included Prof. Tony Emery, Victoria College; Archie Mercer, supervising principal, Brechin schools, Nanaimo; Ronald Weir, chairman, Sooke school board, and Mrs. A. B. Thompson, provincial Parent-Teachers' Federation.

NON-NATIVE

Prof. Emery, only non-native of Vancouver Island on the panel, said he had no direct experience with elementary education in this province, but had encountered their products in junior high school and in college.

The elementary teacher, he thought, should do his best to see that a child learns something and gains a body of knowledge on which the youngster and his teachers could build later.

REMARKABLE JOB

A "remarkable job," he said, was being done in the first two grades of school, especially considering the big classes.

"I have been amazed at the size of these classes. In the Old Country teachers would throw up their hands in dismay at such big groups."

Building of character was pointed up by Mrs. Thompson as a principal aim for elementary schools. With it she coupled development of good teacher-pupil relations.

TREMENDOUS SALARY

"I think primary teachers should be paid a tremendous salary," she said — and drew a warm round of applause.

Aims of the elementary school, said Mr. Weir, should be basically to develop intellect, promote moral discipline, and provide a basis for earning a living.

"A teacher cannot handle with best results a class of 40 to 42 pupils. The sooner we get down to classes of about 25 the better. Until we do, there is no way of remedying the situation that develops in later grades."

Lazy Canvassers Blamed for Lag In Chest Drive

Laggard canvassers are letting down the Community Chest campaign and the people of Victoria, campaign chairman Eric Mallett said yesterday.

"Many hundreds of our volunteer canvassers have done their job well, far beyond the call of duty," Mr. Mallett said yesterday. "But there is a large group of canvassers who are letting down Victorians, who have been most generous, and undermining the efforts of fellow-canvassers.

"If these canvassers do not complete the jobs to which they have been assigned, the campaign will fall far short of its target. These people alone will be responsible."

Yesterday's campaign total was $222,167.20. Officials have an over-all objective of $325,000, and a special target of $300,000 by Wednesday, official closing date of the drive.

In order to facilitate collection of monies which have not been turned in by canvassers, "drop-off points" will be set up starting Monday at Eaton's Service Centre, the Hudson's Bay Information Centre, and all chartered banks.

Former Archbishop Operated Upon

Former Archbishop of Montreal, Joseph Charbonneau, underwent surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday for an acute abdominal condition.

Although doctors described the operation as satisfactory, Archbishop Charbonneau remained in serious condition in hospital where he is being treated for a heart condition.

He came here from Montreal nine years ago and since 1957 has suffered recurring heart trouble.

Everybody's Happy

Ferry Firm's Pride Tests Sidney's Pride

Successful testing yesterday of Sidney's pride, the new government wharf, by Washington State Ferries' pride, Evergreen State, is heralded as a sure sign that Sidney "is becoming the new transportation centre of lower Vancouver Island."

"Sidney can't miss," said C. E. Blaney, the ferry company's representative here. The firm operates ferries between Sidney and Anacortes, Wash.

"Our business has gone up 105 per cent in five years," he said. "And there's no doubt that the new wharf is going to be a tremendous aid to service."

The newest and proudest vessel in the WSF fleet, which loaded and unloaded at the wharf and found it a "perfect fit," will become a regular on the run, said Mr. Blaney.

"There's hardly a trailer rig or load on the highways today that they can't handle between them," he said. The old wharf had been limited to loads under 20,000 tons.

The federal government wharf will really hit its stride in the spring when it will be accommodating the two ferries for the Sidney-Tsawwassen run. In addition, WSF may be expanding its service, agent Blaney indicated.

Thief Hits Pensioner Cruel Blow

A hallway thief struck a cruel blow to an elderly Victoria pensioner this week.

Mrs. Isobel Fyvie, of 1118 Quadra, told city police that someone had stolen her old-age pension cheque for $55, some time between 10.30 a.m. and 3 p.m. Wednesday. It's loss leaves her with only $20 until the next cheque comes —and only $20 in her possession.

The cheque was stolen from a hallway ledge in the rooming house where she lives.

Race Bias, Trade Stamps

Fluorides and Tourists Pondered by Chamber

Fluoridation, funds for tourist publicity, racial discrimination and trading stamps kept Victoria Chamber of Commerce directors busy for more than two hours yesterday.

Ira Hill chairman of the fluoridation committee reported that since the chamber had endorsed fluoridation, a number of rebuffs had been met including opposition in Esquimalt, but he hoped that the other Victoria communities, as well as Oak Bay, would agree to a December referendum on the subject.

"We are fairly confident most of them will do so," he said.

$1,000 ASKED

Eric Mallett said the chamber's support of fluoridation was one of the most important things it had tackled and he asked for funds up to $1,000 from the chamber to support the drive by the fluoridation committee.

Mr. Mallett said that if Oak Bay alone were to take a referendum he thought the full support of the chamber should be directed towards the campaign in that municipality.

Fred Hawes, who is an Oak Bay councillor as well as a chamber director, pointed out that even if Oak Bay electors approved fluoridation it was not the intention of the municipality to introduce fluorides alone.

TOO COSTLY

"It would be too costly a proceeding" he said.

Despite that Mr. Mallett persuaded the directors to recommend that the executive committee of the chamber make funds available to the fluoridation committee with a maximum of $1,000.

The chamber was also asked to supply funds to an Associated Chambers of Vancouver Island project for a co-operative effort aimed at promoting travel to all parts of the Island.

Urging support for the co-operative Vancouver Island project, Ian Ross said that tourism in the next few years might rank as one of the three leading industries in the province.

Peter Forward, reporting for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, said his group had taken an active part in a recent case of racial discrimination in Victoria, and said that the efforts made to give publicity to the case had met with considerable success.

W. A. Laudrum, retiring chairman of the retail merchants group, who is leaving shortly to take up a new position in New York, said that there was little likelihood of trading stamps becoming an issue in Victoria.

COUNCIL MATTER

He said that this was a matter for the city council, as the city charter empowered it to revoke the licences of any firm using this form of marketing.

Little Witches, Goblins Have Choice of Bonfires

Little witches and goblins will have a choice of more than half a dozen giant bonfires to attend in the Greater Victoria and surrounding areas tonight.

Skies will be cloudy and some light rain may fall during the evening, the weather office predicted last night.

Festivities for youngsters have been planned as follows:

Victoria — A bonfire for children of the James Bay district, at 7 p.m. at the boat ramp at the foot of St. Lawrence Street. Refreshments supplied by the Century Toppers Car Club assisted by the James Bay Community Association. Also, at Memorial Arena from 8 to 11 p.m., a combination dance and skating party for students.

Esquimalt — Two bonfires starting at 6 p.m., at Bullen Park and the corner of Lampson and Tillicum, with refreshments, prizes and entertainment provided by the Esquimalt Lions Club.

Saanich — A jumbo bonfire at the corner of Prospect Lake Road and Goward Road at 7 p.m., with hot dogs and firecrackers provided. Also, a big bonfire at Interurban Road and Alan Road at 7.30 for children of the Colquitz area, with refreshments and supervised fireworks provided by Lorne McNutt.

Classes 'Like Factories' Suggested to Teachers

An American educator has suggested that industrial arts classes be organized like real factories to make their pupils more familiar with the principles of present-day industry.

Prof. George B. Cox, head of the department of industrial engineering and industrial arts at Oregon State College, made the suggestion yesterday in a speech to the Vancouver Island Secondary Teachers' Association fall convention at Victoria High School.

"If classes are operated as a plant, with the class electing a general manager, foremen, and other such workers, the pupils get a better insight into the workings of labor," he said. "I operated my classes like that for several years, and only twice were there failures. Once a boy was too lazy; the second time he let his authority go to his head.

"But if workers in the present day had a better understanding of labor, men like Dave Beck would never have gotten started, and his successor today (James Hoffa) would have been a different man."

Scooting Beats Walking

A boon to the foot-weary mailman — like the "caddy cart" for golfers, only then some — may soon send him scooting blithely around his one-time tedious "walk."

This answer to a postie's prayer is the mailmobile, a three-wheeled motor scooter which has just been pronounced a success after tests in Vancouver.

An Ottawa report said the postal department now plans wider use of the vehicle, designed to ease the postman's burden and speed deliveries.

Victoria's Postmaster Robert Reid said yesterday he had no idea when and if the mailmobile might be put into use here.

"They're still experimental, but there's no doubt they do a good job."

He said they're designed for scattered, fringe areas where the postmen have long walks—"they'd be fine for Saanich."

Thieves Not Choosey —They Took Anything

Thieves seemed to be taking anything they could get yesterday.

Reported to city police as stolen were a size 6¾ cowboy hat from a store at 255 Cook Street, a Chinese vase from suite 303, 1270 Beach Drive and a blue blazer with a crest on it from a parked car.

To top it off, police last night chased through brush and arrested a man who was caught loading up his car with scrap metal from Victoria Machinery Depot.

About $142 was reported stolen during a break-in at the Burger House, 801 Fort Street, early yesterday morning.

Entry was gained from an alley where the culprit climbed a wire mesh screen below an unlocked window.

Police said they found the premises insecure at 1.40 a.m. Report of the missing money, which included $60 in coins, was made at 7.25 a.m.

Fishiest Story of Year ---His and Her Salmon

Fishiest story of the year was told by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald B. Stokes, of Vancouver, now honeymooning on the Island.

Passing Cowichan Bay they noticed salmon leaping and decided to try their luck.

After some time Mr. Stokes felt a pull at his line and was reeling in when it became snarled on his wife's line.

The fish broke free. While he was shouting his disappointment, Mrs. Stokes line freed itself and she caught his fish.

The one that got away, didn't.

For supper tonight, the Stokes are cooking a His and Hers salmon.

Double Reception for Victoria Couples

Pictured at their double reception at Lougheed's banquet hall recently were young Victoria newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McTavish, right. Both couples were married in Oak Bay United Church the same evening in consecutive ceremonies. Mrs. Allen is the former Olivia Fisher, of Victoria and Mrs. McTavish the former Gloria Crawford, of Trail. Both grooms are with the PPCLI. —. (Photo by Chevrons.)

Your Problems

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann: That 12-year-old boy who complained because his grandmother cut his hair and the kids teased him started me thinking. If more people would cut their kids' hair at home maybe we could get the barber prices down where they belong.

I'm the father of three young sons. We live in Chicago. Every other Saturday the four of us go for haircuts. It costs $1.75 for each boy. Mine is $2.00. I'm almost completely bald. The barber usually gets me out of his chair in 9 minutes.

My 7-and-8-year-olds have crew cuts. Last week I timed them. They were out of the chair in 13 and 15 minutes each. The 5-year-old takes 15 minutes. The barber gets $7.25.

We take a bus both ways. This little excursion chews a $10 bill to pieces. Maybe if you hear from a whole slew of outraged fathers who are tired of getting clipped, both figuratively and literally, we can get the price of haircuts down to where they make sense. —CHICAGO POP.

A Slew of Fathers

Dear Chicago Pop: I've already heard from a slew of outraged fathers. I'm willing to print a solution to this problem if someone will come up with one. I assume, too, that the barbers have a side. I'd like to hear it.

Dear Ann: My husband and I double date a lot with one couple. Jim used to go with the girl. I'll call her Mae.

I think she is still after him. When we go to the movies she tries to sit next to him. Whenever there's music she asks Jim to dance — she doesn't even wait till he asks her. Mae is always reminding him of the swell times they had together. I feel left out. Her husband doesn't say anything but I'm sure he doesn't like it any more than I do.

Jim has no idea I'm worried or upset. I keep telling myself there's nothing to it because Jim broke up with Mae to go with me. But I'm still jumpy inside and worry that maybe I will lose him. Please tell me how to handle this delicate situation—UNEASY VICTOR.

★ ★ ★

Dear Uneasy: If you want REAL trouble just start to make noises like a jealous wife. Mae sounds like an aggressive female who lost out during courtship because of her pushiness.

Most men can tolerate just so much chasing, then they run for cover. Be patient—and silent.

Settled in My Mind

Dear Ann: I am only 12 years of age. I don't go with boys yet. But I want to get a few things settled in my mind now, so when the problem comes up I will know how to handle it.

When a boy comes over to a girl's house to visit, how does she get him to go home? —LOOKING AHEAD.

Dear Looking: Most girls worry about how to get a boy to come over to the house—not how to get him to go home.

But since you want to be prepared for all emergencies the best way to get a boy to go home is to tell him it's getting late and you'll have to continue the interesting conversation another time. While you are saying this hand him his jacket and lead him gently to the door.

Confidential to HATER OF PHONIES: Sure hypocrites go to church. But so do a great many decent people. Your generalization is unfair and your conclusions are inaccurate..

A LOVELIER YOU

By Mary Sue Miller

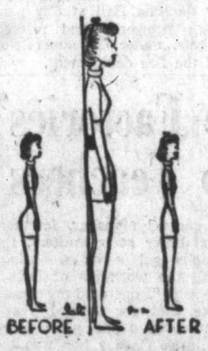

ONE HIP PROBLEM SOLVED. If you are plagued by hips that jut out in the back like an overhanging shelf, today's message is especially for you. It will alert you both to the cause of the problem and the cure.

The cause can be put down as often to improper posture as to the improper distribution of weight. Whatever you weigh, a jut where only a curve should be comes from habitually standing with the hips thrown backward.

The backward pose defies nature's plan for normal body balance. To compensate, the hip muscles and flesh are forced to act like counterweights. And so as to perform effectively, they develop a hefty contour.

The correction, of course, is improved carriage. You must learn to stand with the hips tucked under the body. The best way to do it is by repeating this routine for 10 minutes every day: Press your back against a wall and rotate the hips forward, until there is no space between the wall and your back. Holding the position, walk 10 steps.

After much practice, the position becomes automatic when you stand. Then, the hips begin to assume their normal line.

Halloween Tonight! —Time to Shell Out

By LOUISE MOORE

When the witches ride, goblins play and pirates impishly ring your door bell tonight you'll want to have that camera ready for those snapshots of children in their colorful costumes and happy faces.

Don't forget too, that in approximately 1,500 communities across the country more than 200,000 children will be celebrating Halloween by donating their "treats" to the United Nations Children's Fund.

The money collected will be distributed to more than 100 underdeveloped countries in the form of much-needed milk and medicine.

Now for the eats—candied apples, cookies and taffy for those pirates and witches that will appear at your door. So shell out—not only eats but money.

TAFFY APPLES

Wash and dry six good-sized rosy red apples: insert wooden skewer in blossom end of each apple. Put into saucepan, 1 cup sugar, ¼ cup corn syrup and 6 tablespoons of water. Put over medium heat and stir until sugar is dissolved and mixture comes to a boil. Boil until the hard ball stage is reached without stirring. Color a bright red with food coloring and flavor with a few drops peppermint extract or cinamon candies. Hold apple by skewer, plunge into the syrup, remove quickly and twirl until syrup runs down and covers sides evenly and completely. Stand upright in holes of colander so apples won't touch anything and spoil their glossy coats. Do one apple at a time until all are coated. Coat them the day they are to be used.

LOLLYPOP COOKIES

Sift together 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, ½ cup granulated sugar, 1 tsp. baking powder and ¼ tsp. salt. Add ½ cup soft shortening, 1 lightly-beaten egg, 1tsp. vanilla, 1 tsp. water. Beat until smooth. About 2 minutes. Stir in 1 cup quick or old-fashioned Quaker Oats uncooked. Shape into 24 balls, place on ungreased cookie sheets.

Flatten with bottom of glass dipped in flour. Insert wooden skewer into each. Bake in preheated oven (350) 11 to 12 minutes. Remove from cookie sheets and cool. Using confectioner's sugar frosting, attach semi-sweet chocolate pieces for eyes, gumdrops for nose, cinamon candies for mouth and colored coconut for hair. Makes 2 dozen cookies. Nice for handouts.

Bargain Buying Requires Care And Resistance

Sales! Sales! Sales!

Everywhere you go these days, shop windows are offering "Drastic Reductions!" or "Prices Slashed! or "Bargains, Bargains, Bargains!"

You have to have high sales resistance not to give in to some of the tempting offers.

Bargain buying requires good sense and planning. Buying just because it's hard to resist markdowns is often fatal, particularly if the item(s) don't fit into your present wardrobe (or garage.)

One annual clearance that every year has customers lining up for blocks will begin this morning down on Government Street. Coffee will be served to shoppers.

I took a sneak preview yesterday at some of the items to be offered today and all week and there are some real steals.

Every woman at one time or other would like to own a cashmere sweater but often, this luxurious garment is out of range of the average budget. Sale prices on all colors and kinds of cashmere this coming week will be about $10.95 to $15.95.

★ ★ ★

Interesting buy would be a tartan Eisenhower jacket in a variety of plaids to match slacks. Beautifully lined and zippered, these were regularly $35 and will go for $13.95.

★ ★ ★

In the novelty line, I noticed one of those cuddly pyjama bags in the shape of a large black and white sheepdog, regularly $14.50 down to $8.50.

★ ★ ★

Elegance personified to accent your costume or suit would be a famous-name scarf in printed silks at a reduction from $4.50 to $2.95.

★ ★ ★

A perfect surprise gift for your husband Christmas morning would be his unwrapping a well-tailored camel hair coat from the finest looms in Scotland. One such coat was reduced $110 from its regular $225 price, another $125 coat going for $79.50, and another at $145 down to $89.50.

Biggest bargains offered include the men's tie department where regularly-priced neckwear from $2 to $3.50 will sell for 95 cents.

★ ★ ★

Many original suits and coats, some lavish with fur, will be reduced for the sale at a variety of prices.

Debutante

Added to the list of debutantes to be presented at the USI Ball Friday, Nov. 20, is Miss Ann Lougheed, daughter of Flt. Lt. and Mrs. Norman N. Lougheed, 3220 Weald Road. Senior Citizen Site Dedicated Sunday

Dedication of the site and the first completed unit in the United Church Gorge View senior citizens' housing development will be held Sunday at 3 p.m.

Rev. S. Robert Christie, associate secretary of the board of social service of the United Church, will dedicate the building assisted by Rev. A. I. Avery chairman of the Victoria Presbytery, which sponsored the low-rent project.

This first building of 15 planned for the project, contains two suites for married couples and four suites for single persons. Designed by Charles E. Craig, who drew up the plans for Kiwanis Village, the completed project will provide low-rent housing for about 130 senior citizens.

Units for single persons, each containing a bath, kitchenette, bedroom and living room, are rented for $25 a month. The family suites, with one additional room, rent for $35 a month.

Funds for the land and first unit, located on five acres between Balfour and Harriet at the west end of Irma Street, were provided by grants from the United Church board of evangelism and social service, the provincial government, and bequests and donations from various church organizations.

The society, formed in 1956, plans to build one unit at a time as funds are available. Estimated cost of the completed project is more than $500,000.

Mayor Percy B. Scurrah and W. N. Chant, Public Works Minister, will be guest speakers at the dedication.

Ordained

A former Victoria resident, Rev. George F. Ross, was recently ordained at the 37th annual District and Prayer Conference of the Christian Missionary Alliance at Owen Sound, Ont. Mr. Ross, pastor of the Alliance Church in Barrie, Ont., is a graduate of the Canadian Bible College, Regina. Mr. and Mrs. Ross have lived in Barrie for the past two years.

Hidden Words of Jesus

NEW YORK (AP) — "Whoever knows the all but fails to know himself lacks everything."

This is one of the hitherto unknown sayings attributed to Jesus in the "gospel according to Thomas," to be published in full this weekend for the first time.

The event is of far-reaching significance, says Rev. Paul Minear, professor of New Testament at Yale Divinity School.

FAMILIAR ECHOES

The book contains 20 chapters, including 114 sayings or discourses credited to Jesus, some of them echoes of familiar gospel passages, others wholly new.

At one point, it is recounted: "Jesus said to his disciples: 'Make a comparison to me and tell me whom I am like.'

"Simon Peter said to him: 'Thou art like a righteous angel.' Matthew said to him: 'Thou are like a wise man of understanding.' Thomas said to him: 'Master, my mouth will not at all be capable of saying whom thou art like.' "

ORIGINAL SOURCES

The book was among 49 works bound in 13 papyrus volumes found in 1945 in a ruined tomb near Nag Hamadi in upper Egypt, preserved there in dry sand for 16 centuries. They were collated in 1956 in a Cairo museum.

While the particular manuscripts are said to date back to the late 300s, they are considered to be copies of original sources going back perhaps to the first century, as old as parts of the New Testament.

SECRET WORDS

"The genuineness of sayings attributed to Jesus but otherwise unknown will provoke widespread discussion," says Dr. Everett F. Harrison, New Testament professor at Fuller Theological Seminary.

Published by Harper and Brothers, along with a commentary, the text itself begins: "These are the secret words which the living Jesus spoke and Didymos Judas Thomas wrote." Didymos Thomas was one of the 12 apostles.

The emphasis remains on love: "Love the brother thy soul, guard him as the apple of thine eye."

'Let Them Walk Until They Die'

Death Marcher To Speak Here

One of the heroes of the infamous "Death March of Yalu" will tell his amazing story to two meetings Monday in Victoria.

Commissioner Herbert Lord, international travelling commissioner of the Salvation Army, will speak to joint meeting of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and the Douglas and Victoria Rotary Clubs Monday at 6 p.m. at Holyrood House.

Later in the evening, he will address a meeting at the First Baptist Church.

Commissioner Lord has served as a Salvation Army officer for almost 50 years. Seven of these years were spent as a prisoner during the Second World War and the Korean war because he refused to leave his post in time of crisis.

He began his work in Korea at the age of 21. In 1936, he was sent to organize the work of the Salvation Army in Singapore. There he was captured by the Japanese in 1942 and interned for 3½ years.

After he was released in 1945 he was called to England to receive the Order of the British Empire in recognition of his social welfare work.

Subsequently he went back to Seoul, a return to duty that led to another 34 months imprisonment and his part in the death march.

On the outbreak of the Korean war, he remained in Seoul to meet the Reds, hoping that he would be allowed to continue his work, Instead, he was arrested. He was released in April, 1953.

It was Commissioner Lord who protested to the Korean officer who started the death march that "They will die if they have to march!"

The answer was "Then let them march until they die."

It is this story that he will tell here Monday.

Huge 'Ghettos' Of Women

HARTFORD (UPI)—A leading churchman said Thursday that churches are having to deal with "great ghettos of single women."

Rev. Dr. Jon L. Regier of New York City, said "we are beginning to get communities that are predominantly made up of detached women."

Garden Notes

Tree, Spare That Woodman

By M. V. CHESNUT, FRHS

There are a lot of old trees in and around Victoria which can be given a new lease on life through judicious pruning, and I always like to get this job done as soon after leaf-fall as possible. Some kinds, such as the maples, the sycamores and the horse chestnuts, tend to bleed badly when the sap rises in early spring if pruning is delayed until after Christmas.

You will note that I say "judicious" pruning. Always bear in mind that really hard pruning will often result in rampant, uncontrolled growth; one branch can easily become a witch's broom of 20 or more useless twiggy growths.

* * *

If large branches must be removed, either take them off in their entirety, flush with the parent trunk, or make your cut immediately above a well-placed side shoot or lateral which can absorb the nutrients pumped up by the roots. If really drastic pruning is necessary, it is best to spread the work over two or even three years.

Ragged white tears on a tree trunk, and areas of damaged bark bespeak carelessness on the part of the pruner. To avoid these wounds, always make the first cut about a third of the way through the branch from the underside first, holding the saw upside down. Then, when the top cut is made, the heavy branch will part cleanly, without tearing a great strip of bark and wood out of the tree.

* * *

Every fall and winter brings its annual crop of broken bones and crippling accidents through thoughtless tree pruning. It is hard to believe that a man would actually saw through the branch on which he is sitting, but it happens again and again. More often, though, accidents are caused through leaning the ladder against a diseased or dead branch, or by attempting to remove a large and heavy branch single-handed.

Wherever possible, place the ladder against the trunk rather than trusting to any branch. Where large branches must be removed without assistance, always take them off piecemeal, in lengths too short to cause injury. Take special care of yourself when working on sycamore trees, as the wood has very short fibres and the branch you are cutting will often drop without any warning at all.

In our part of the world, November is considered the best month for planting roses. This is because the bushes are in a quiescent state, and the whole machinery of the plant is only just "ticking over" until it becomes stimulated by warmer weather in the spring.

The soil still retains enough warmth to assist in the formation of new roots, to replace those lost during transit from nursery to garden. Where soil is very heavy and waterlogged, however, I think it is best to delay planting until spring, spending the winter studying the lie of the puddles and making some effort to improve the drainage.

I don't think much of the popular idea of spreading a winter mulch of manure around roses. The manure packs down and forms a cold, clammy, air-excluding poultice, and the roots tend to become smothered. Keep the mulch off until after the bushes are pruned in the spring.

* * *

Fruit trees and bush fruits, on the other hand, enjoy a winter mulch of compost or manure, but don't push this material close up the stem—keep it clear by at least six inches. The mulch provides some cover for pests, and if you observe the birds in winter, you will see that the circle of bare soil between the mulch and the trunk is a happy hunting ground for them.

Television in Review

'I Rig You the Most'

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — I hadn't gauged the impact of the TV quiz scandals until:

—President Eisenhower put the attorney-general on the case.

—A manufacturer issued, "I rig you the most" buttons.

—Walter Lippman turned his attention to it. (This, incidentally, in violation of our agreement. He wasn't going to write about TV if I stayed out of international affairs.)

So, before the fixed fifties turn into the sincere sixties, and quizquashers resume their hearings, I thought I'd set down some thoughts on the scandals.

First off, regardless of what Charles Van Doren says or does, enough is known—and was known a year ago—to indicate that the TV quiz shows would have to be cleaned up or eliminated.

Van Doren is a side issue. While his fall from grace is taking place, remember that he didn't corrupt Dan Enright. Contact with big-time TV corrupted Van Doren. And remember, too, that if a man like Van Doren can yield to the rationalizations that were showered upon him, who among us could have walked away?

Don't let clever public relations and TV comedians divert attention from the main issue: Big money and higher ratings. We all recall exultation over those lofty quiz show ratings and the world-wide publicity shows received.

Can the people who helped create this mess get a grip on themselves, place principle over expediency, and demonstrate impeccable judgment in the future? Let's just say: They must.

Meanwhile, networks will be tightening control over all phases of programming for some time to come.

Now we come to the argument that, "no laws were broken and nobody got hurt" by fixed quiz shows. Well, no laws were broken only because rigged TV shows are still too new. After all, we didn't get an Atomic Energy Act until we had atomic energy.

Hollywood Today

Marilyn and Peck Need Referee

HOLLYWOOD (NANA)—Marilyn Monroe has approved the script. So has Gregory Peck. But they are giving big odds hereabouts that, when the two stars work in "The Billionaire" for Jerry Wald at 20th Century-Fox, not only will sparks fly, but a fire will rage. Gregory is very punctual. Marilyn is not. Peck can emote on command. Marilyn has "to feel like it." Both are jealous guardians of their share of the footage. The referee will be director George Cukor. He will need all his well-known tact.

* * *

"They stopped writing roles for women," June Allyson told me on the sets of her current TV series at Republic, adding, "I like making films for television. You never get a chance to sit in your dressing room and get bored, what with the fittings, interviews, and learning your lines. This business is no place for an amateur."

* * *

Peter Ustinov is working on an Australian accent for "The Sundowners." Says the nasal tone is fascinating.

* * *

Mitzi Gaynor won't do any singing or dancing in "Surprise Package." Mitzi is a great dancer and sings fairly well. But, in my opinion, she bounces around too much on screen.

* * *

Cary Grant's date with Eva Bartok in London made every gossip column there. He can be quieter about this sort of thing in Hollywood.

* * *

Gig Young bought a 21-foot boat, "which I tack on the end of a trailer and take to the ocean." They always start with a smallie. Robert Wagner's first was about 12 feet. Now he owns an ocean-going yacht.

* * *

Young actor George Hamilton bought a $200 suit to wear for his test as Tony in "All the Fine Young Cannibals." So, the test call read, "wear pajamas"!

* * *

Ava Gardner's parting words to a cleaner at the London airport: "You're happier than I ever shall be." He was happy to receive Ava's $10 tip.

Winning Contract

Vul: Both	NORTH ♠ K 10 5 3 ♡ 6 4 2 ◇ 10 ♣ 9 8 7 3 2
WEST ♠ 6 2 ♡ A Q J 7 ◇ Q J 9 6 ♣ K J 4		EAST ♠ Q 9 7 4 ♡ 8 5 3 ◇ 7 4 2 ♣ A 10 6
	SOUTH (D) ♠ A J 8 ♡ K 10 9 ◇ A K 8 5 3 ♣ Q 5

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 N.T.	All Pass

Opening lead: ◇ Q

Chicago's Milton Ellenby sat West in this historic deal played some years ago. He wisely passed the no-trump opener, since a spade response to a take-out double might have had disastrous consequences.

East played the diamond four on the first trick, and declarer ducked. Ellenby switched to the spade six, dummy played low, East the nine, and declarer won the the jack. South cashed the spade ace, then led the diamond eight; West winning the nine.

Trying to count declarer's hand, West knew he had started with five diamonds headed by the ace-king, and three spades; ace-jack-eight. (Remember, East had played spade nine at trick two.) this left declarer with five cards in hearts and clubs. Having shown 12 high-card points so far, South might have the ace-queen of clubs, but this would leave him nothing in hearts. More likely, South should have the heart king and club queen. But if South held three hearts, in order for the contract to be defeated, East would need two entries to lead hearts through South twice. Ellenby therefore led the club king, followed by the jack! This was overtaken by East's ace, dropping South's queen. The heart return was won by East's jack, and another club led to East's ten. Another heart lead gave defenders four heart tricks, two diamond and three clubs for a top score resulting from the truly brilliant defense by Ellenby.

HORIZONTAL SALESMANSHIP
Whatever happened to the good old days, when a bedding salesman wouldn't THINK of selling a mattress without getting his prospect to try it????
BELIEVE YOU ME
. . . we could all do with a little more "try-before-you-buy technique." A customer coaxed to lie down on a Simmons mattress . . . sells herself. The salesman should be tactful about this, as the situation is not without its embarrassing moments. We have trained our guys to invite them, casually . . . LOOK AWAY . . . like somebody was yelling from the other end of the store. We find that when prospects are willing to do this . . . they are usually swept off their feet, and BUY a mattress by Simmons, from
HUMBER'S Warehouse
. . . every time.

Firecracker Guns Seized by Police

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police in nearby Burnaby Thursday night seized a dozen "pipe guns" in which firecrackers can be used to hurl a missile more than 200 yards.

The weapons were confiscated by officers after police and city hall officials were swamped with complaints concerning use of the Halloween noisemakers.

Police said the guns are home-made of heavy pipe and when loaded with rocks or marbles could kill a child or adult at close range.

Several B.C. boys have already been injured by firecrackers.

The seriousness of eye injuries suffered by David Beer, 12, of Whalley, have not been determined. Richard Avis, 12, of Parksville, was burned on the face when a firecracker he was lighting exploded.

Mayor Tom Alsbury said he was concerned over the situation but would not support a complete ban on their sale until he studied the problem.

Police Chief George Archer has appealed to youths not to set off firecrackers at a semi-final Western Interprovincial Football Union game here Saturday between Edmonton Eskimos and British Columbia Lions.

He said police dogs will be at Empire Stadium to control any disturbance among a crowd, expected to number at least 35,000.

By Force if Necessary

Allies Will Ban East German Flag

BONN (AP)—The Western Allies today were reported agreed that troops should be used if necessary to prevent display of the new Communist East German flag in West Berlin next week.

Allied officials said no special alert has been ordered for their Berlin garrisons yet, but indicated such an order is probable when East Germany celebrates the 42nd anniversary of the Soviet revolution Nov. 7.

They said it has been agreed that the new hammer-and-compass flag of the East German regime should not be permitted to be flown again over the Communist-operated elevated railway stations of West Berlin.

The Reds raised their new flag over the stations Oct. 7, on the 10th birthday of the East German regime. West Berlin police, ordered to remove the flags, clashed with superior numbers of East Berlin railway men.

One official said the Western Allies had decided to "take any measures required to cope with this situation." Another put it more bluntly: "If West Berlin police can't deal with it, then our troops will be used."

Broadcasters Get Chance to Debate

How Much Canada on TV?

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian broadcasters appear before the Board of Broadcast Governors next week to say what they think of proposed regulations for television.

The main point at issue is expected to be the board's proposal for a minimum of 55 per cent Canadian content in all TV programming, computed on a weekly basis.

Proposed regulations:

1. No television broadcasting before noon, except for religious programs, children's programs on Saturday's, school broadcasts and special events of national, regional or local character for which the board has given its permission.

2. A maximum of two hours of broadcasting time daily between 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. would be reserved for purpose prescribed by the board. Programming during these two hours would require a 55-per-cent Canadian content, computed daily.

3 No Canadian TV station would have direct program connection with U.S. networks without first obtaining board approval.

Reports from within the broadcasting industry suggest that many persons planning applications for second TV stations in major Canadian cities were scared off by the proposal for 55 per cent Canadian content.

'A Bushel of Knives'

Football Fans Well Armed

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) —Principal Robert C. Johnson says his teachers have instructions to collect knives, guns and other weapons before a football game.

Johnson, principal at the Parker High School, testified at a hearing in which a teacher and student each was fined $100 and costs and the student was given a 180-day jail sentence.

The hearing Thursday night followed Monday night's football game between Parker and Western Negro high schools here.

Two boys were shot and slightly wounded, a 70-piece band was routed from the bleachers by knife-wielding fans, and police collected a bushel of knives, razors and other weapons. The game ended in a 7-7 tie.

The trouble started when some 1,500 fans noticed that one team had 12 players on the field instead of 11.

The teacher, 27-year-old Westbrook Walker, was fined for carrying a pistol. He told Judge Bill Conway that he had taken the weapon from a teenager who was brandishing it in the crowd.

Soviet Union Won't Back UN in Laos

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—The Soviet Union said Friday it will neither support nor tacitly agree to the establishment of a permanent United Nations mission in the troubled Southeast Asia kingdom of Laos.

The Russian statement came amidst speculation regarding the awaited report of a UN subcommittee which spent a month studying conditions in Laos.

Some sources said developments could be expected momentarily, while others felt it may be a week or so before word comes out on just what the mission found in the Southeast Asia country.

It was not known just what form the report would take, but there were unofficial so-called leaks that the subcommittee did not discover aggression in the form of troops, although there was evidence of weapons from Communist countries.

Assassins Plot to Kill Iraqi Critic of Nasser

CAIRO (Reuters) — An assassination plot against a leading figure in the revolutionary regime in Iraq was reported here Thursday.

Newspapers say the plot was directed against Col. Fadel Mahdawi, president of the Baghdad people's court and a cousin of Iraqi Premier Abdul Karim Kassem, himself wounded in an assassination attempt early this month.

In his conduct of a succession of trials against anti-Kassem elements, Mahwadi has been an outspoken critic of Egypt's President Nasser and of "Western imperialists."

The newspaper Al Akhbar says two youths and an elderly man had been arrested as suspects following disclosure of the plot.

Car Stealer Rooks Police

TORONTO (CP)—Constable Nelson Sherwood, investigating the theft of a car from Toronto, stopped at a farm in nearby Trafalgar Township.

He questioned a man, placed him in his unmarked police car, turned to talk to the owner of the farm and: Whoosh!

Police now have another stolen car investigation under way.

'Try Darndest' for Drug Cure

VANCOUVER — The city's senior police magistrate, Oscar Orr, said yesterday British Columbia authorities "should try their darndest" to find a method to cure drug addicts.

He said he recently visited a United States public health hospital in Fort Worth, Texas, and "got the idea that if anything could arrest or cure drug addiction, these people were trying it."

If a similar institute were opened here, the federal government would have to overhaul the present Opium and Narcotic Drug Act. As it stands anyone convicted of possessing drugs is subjected to a minimum six-month jail sentence and cannot be given probation.

John Robbins, Sir Hugh Taylor

Honorary Doctorates Conferred at UBC

VANCOUVER (CP)—Honorary doctorates in law and science were conferred at the University of British Columbia fall congregation here Friday.

John Robbins, editor-in-chief of the Encyclopedia Canadiana, became an honorary doctor of law.

He was praised for his roles in the Canadian Social Science Research Council, of the Humanities Research Council of Canada, and of the Canada Foundation. "Through these organizations he has found deserving scholars, he has helped their worthy causes, and he has advanced our national scholarship," his testimonial read.

The second honorary doctor is Sir Hugh Taylor, president of the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation, a doctor of science.

"This famous knight," said President Norman MacKenzie, "is an exemplar of a combination now rare and previous: he is both an eminent scientist who shows unusual brilliance and a distinguished administrator who acts with humane understanding."

More than 470 graduates received their degrees at the congregation.

Following the congregation Chancellor A. E. Grauer presided at the opening of three new men's residences on the campus.

They were named Robson House, after J. G. Robson, who made a gift to the university for this purpose; Kootenay and Okanagan House.

Shots, Cries Mark End Of Gambler

CLEVELAND (AP) — Screaming for help, Michael Sperrazzo, gambler and one-time bootlegger, was shot down outside his home in a quiet suburban district Friday. He was shot twice in the head and once in the chest.

His cries and the gunfire awakened neighbors and brought his 49-year-old wife to the window to watch the gangland-style killing. Two men apparently had prepared an ambush behind shrubs at the Shaker Heights home. They were seen fleeing in a black sedan.

Police, searching for a motive, recalled Sperrazzo's brother-in-law, Angelo Graziano, was killed nine years ago Tuesday. Graziano too was shot down outside his home.

Centennial Tourist Total Beaten in '59

More tourists passed through Victoria and Sidney customs during the first nine months of this year than in the corresponding period of 1958, B.C.'s highly-publicized centennial year.

A total of 198,579 tourists in 65,370 cars were handled by customs officers, publicity bureau commissioner George Warren said yesterday. This is an increase of 3½ per cent over last year.

He also said the new wing to the present Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau building will be ready for occupancy before the end of the year. It will house the offices of the Victoria Automobile Club.

Ottawa Home Loan Freeze

Builders Stuck Till Next Year

The freezing of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation loans for home builders from closing time last night will mean some 75 would-be home builders in the Victoria area will have to wait until next year, C. J. Dowling, CMHC manager in Victoria, said last night.

The federal government called a halt to the use of government money for mortgage loans because funds earmarked for this use ran out two months earlier than expected.

An average of 37 or 38 applications were expected during November and December, Mr. Dowling said last night.

Some 15 applications were made yesterday at the Victoria office, in an attempt by builders to get their loans approved before the clampdown.

Applications made yesterday will be granted, Mr. Dowling said, but building must start within 45 days as a condition of CMHC loans.

Martha's Dentures Disclosed

NEW YORK (UPI) — A heretofore unpublicized letter from Martha Washington ordering a set of false teeth has been purchased by a Boston collector for $1,400, it was disclosed yesterday.

The letter, written April 19, 1799, is believed to disclose for the first time that Mrs. Washington, like her husband, used dentures — a novelty at the time.

Sunken Ship One of These?

Another entry has been made in the guessing game over the identity of the ship wreckage found sunk in Sydney Inlet.

Maj. F. V. Longstaff, well-known local maritime historian, submitted three names yesterday, plucked from the files of the maritime committee of the B.C. Historical Association.

A wreck chart compiled by the late John Thomas Walbran, master mariner with the marine department, shows the points where 26 vessels sank, and lists 16 vessels not located on the chart.

From this chart, Mr. Longstaff deduces that the wreck could be that of the Peruvian brigantine Florencia, lost in 1860, the barque Iwanowna, lost off Nootka Sound in 1865, or the Mauna Kea, lost in 1866.

Seek to Destroy Public Gratitude

By ALEC MERRIMAN
Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Attorney-General Robert Bonner lashed out yesterday at what he termed "fatuous criticism" by CCF leader Robert Strachan and other opposition critics.

They seek to destroy public appreciation of the great things the Social Credit government has done, he said.

DESTROY APPRECIATION

"They are trying to destroy the public appreciation of what has been done," he told some 400 delegates to the B.C. Social Credit League convention meeting at PNE Garden Auditorium here.

"The people of this province are entitled to be talked to in terms of fact . . . the calibre of debate by leaders of other parties is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of this province," he boomed across the convention floor.

He called upon the Social Credit League to organize to distribute factual information and distribute it on a wide scale.

TELL THE PUBLIC

"It is your duty to be informed and tell the public the facts of this party's seven years of good government," he said.

"It is the height of silliness to hear some of the things said about public accounting," he said. "It is just silly talk to talk about irregular bookkeeping in the provincial administration. These books are available to the public accounts committee of the legislature . . . a whole army of experts in the finance department keeps the records straight . . . they simply keep the books and we tell you what they find."

ARROGANT NONSENSE

He said that anyone who charged patronage in the Socred government was talking "arrogant nonsense."

"Patronage," he said. "If the Liberals didn't invent it, the Conservatives perfected it."

Education Minister Leslie Peterson said his department is not completely satisfied with the school program of studies and indicated some changes will be made after the Chant report is received.

NO ONE KNOWS

"This year B.C. was fortunate in escaping a polio epidemic," Health Minister Martin told the convention. "No one knows and we can only guess how much the Salk vaccine had to do with the number of cases," he said. He pointed out there were only 73 cases so far this year, compared with 700 in 1953.

"More and more of our people are seeing more and more of B.C. . . . and we think that is good," Recreation Minister Earle Westwood said.

Provincial Secretary and Municipal Affairs Minister Wesley Black said the government does not favor the Murison formula for a revised plan for municipal financing.

"It wouldn't work," he said.

'B.C. Socreds Deserting Grass Roots'

(Colonist Staff Reporter)

VANCOUVER — Cyril Shelford, maverick Social Credit member from Omineca, told convention delegates here yesterday that the B.C. Social Credit League is slipping away from its grass-roots organization.

He also charged that an Omineca resolution demanding an accounting of Social Credit funds had been kept from the floor of the convention for three years in a row.

THROWN OUT

"If you put in contentious resolutions and they are thrown out before coming to the convention floor, people say what is the use of coming to a convention," he said.

The Omineca resolution, he said, had asked for a five-member board of trustees to be set up to handle campaign funds. The premier would be chairman, two men would be elected by party caucus, the B.C. Social Credit president would be a member, as would the president of the women's Socred group.

IDEA APPROVED

Mr. Shelford said his idea had received the approval of the retired national Socred leader Solon Low, who had said it might not be desirable for any or all of the trustees to know where the campaign funds come from, but it was certainly comendable that they should know where the money goes.

Mr. Shelford said some of the blame for the resolution not reaching the floor must rest with league president Noel Murphy.

He nominated Mrs. Evelyn Fingarson of Vancouver-East to oppose Mr. Murphy for the presidency, but Mr. Murphy, who has been president for six years, won out in the balloting.

BROWN RE-ELECTED

Victoria Socred Archie Brown was re-elected second vice-president; Don Reigan of Delta, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Fingarson, sixth vice-president.

He said there were too many speeches yesterday afternoon when cabinet members gave reports.

"There should be more time for resolutions and reports from local groups. Small groups are the most important part of any party.

"I would like to hear how they operate," he said.

Mr. Shelford said he does not know of any accounting now in use for Social Credit campaign funds.

He expressed amazement that resolutions were being kept from the convention floor.

Two years ago a resolution was passed asking for all resolutions to come to the floor of the convention, or a reason to be given why not.

"I just want to see the Social Credit League get as strong as it ever was," he said.

Two Trophies

Hunter with two kangaroos to his credit is Hugh Shantz of Vernon, B.C.'s speaker of the legislature now on a business trip to Australia. Mr. Shantz, MLA for North Okanagan, wrote to his home in Vernon that he had shot the two animals.

Lawmakers Sit Jan. 28

VANCOUVER — The British Columbia legislature will convene Jan. 28, Premier W. A. C. Bennett announced here last night.

It will be the fourth session of the 25th legislature of the province.

Current party standings are Social Credit 38, CCF 10, Liberal 3, Independent Labor 1

Canadian Proposal

Radiation Plan Tabled at UN

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Canada Friday night tabled in the United Nations its proposal for a worldwide study on atomic radiation, with eight co-sponsoring countries from the Commonwealth, Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Austria, Ghana, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand and Norway were the co-sponsors. There had been prolonged behind-the-scenes negotiations with Communist countries but no co-sponsorship was obtained from that area.

ASSEMBLY SPEECH

The main aim of the Canadian proposal was outlined by External Affairs Minister Green in his address to the UN General Assembly Sept. 24.

The resolution tabled Friday night—worded in general terms—will likely not come up for debate in the General Assembly or committee for a week or 10 days.

TALKS FOUNDER

Spokesmen said that discussions with members of the Communist bloc ended Friday morning but foundered on the Russian claim that the Canadian proposal called upon the UN scientific committee on the effects of atomic radiation to exceed its functions.

Tickets Go, Go, Go

Football Frenzy Hits Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—"It's worse than during the Grey Cup," said a tired ticket seller at B.C. Lions downtown office here.

"It's been go, go, go all week. And yesterday we had people lined up at 5 a.m. waiting to get tickets. The lineup was a block long when we opened."

More than 30,000 tickets have been sold for the first Western Interprovincial Football Union playoff game ever here.

Edmonton Eskimos, in their ninth straight playoff, meet British Columbia Lions, in their first, in a two-game total-point semi-final series. Kick-off time is 2 p.m. today. Overcast skies and the possibility of light showers have been forecast.

Lions general manager Herb Capozzi predicted a crowd of at least 35,000.

"We could come pretty close to the all-time record set here in the 1955 Grey Cup game. That was 39,417."

Minor sports have been affected by the game, which will be carried by the CBC on its western network but blacked out locally and in Victoria.

Police officials are prepared to handle any trouble at Empire Stadium during and after the game. Fifteen policemen, augmented by two police dogs, will work inside the stadium. Another 20 will direct traffic outside.

The dogs were used for the first time one week ago when Lions defeated Calgary 10-8 to enter the playoffs. The animals were credited with dispersing a crowd of about 1,000 toughs.

Funsters: Behave Or Else

Requesting co-operation by the public in making this a sane Halloween and purely fun for the young, police chiefs of Greater Victoria yesterday added a stinger:

"Any sign of vandalism or hoodlumism will be dealt with promptly and severely."

Police Chief John Blackstock of Victoria said every uniformed man on his force would be on duty tonight—all shifts.

"We don't want to spoil anyone's fun," he said, "but if we get evidence of anything out of line charges will be laid."

His opinions were echoed by Chiefs Gilbert Stancombe of Esquimalt, Robert Smith of Oak Bay and W. A. Pearson of Saanich.

"Enjoy yourselves—but behave, or else," they warned.

No Ottawa Ambition

Won't Leave B.C. Bennett's Pledge

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Premier Bennett yesterday told some 400 Social Credit convention delegates here he couldn't be taken away from British Columbia for the national Socred leadership, or anything else.

"There is so much to be done in the great and glorious 1960s and I am staying here to do it," he said over the thundering cheers of the delegates.

"I have lost only one election in my career. That is when I went federal and that is another reason I will never go federal again," he said.

"The only election I ever lost was when Diefenbaker was on my committee and campaigned for me," he laughed.

Island Man Survives

Deadliest Known Mushroom

'I Felt My Left Side Dying'

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . . There was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body."

With these words yesterday William C. Down, of Ladysmith, tried to describe what it is like to eat three of the most poisonous variety of mushroom known. Mr. Down is believed to be the only person in the world who has eaten the deadly Amanita Russuloides . . . and miraculously lived.

Mr. Down just barely managed to hold onto life. An emetic given promptly at Nanaimo's general hospital is believed to have saved his life.

Yesterday, well again, he visited Victoria with samples of the mushrooms to have them identified by Dr. Adam Szczawinski, provincial botanist.

"I saw them by the road," Mr. Down said. "I'm very fond of mushrooms so I said to my wife that I was going to stew them.

"They were quite nice. I offered some to my wife and she said 'No, one of us has to be alive.'

"Two hours after, she was shopping in Nanaimo and I was sitting in the car. I felt sleepy and on the way home, about a mile, I got in the back of the car and laid down."

Mrs. Down drove her husband to a service station, the attendant called an ambulance and Mr. Down was taken to Nanaimo hospital.

WILLIAM C. DOWN

After the emetic Mr. Down felt better, but he went to sleep soon afterwards. He slept for 14 hours.

"I had all sorts of hallucinations," he said. "I imagined I was going to be on the TV and everyone in this world would hear me, as I had discovered the origin of man . . . he had gone to his death point and began to live again . . .

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . .

"I had one or two experiences in the First World War, coming close to death, and then people kept visiting me in my dreams. It happened again.

"Later on the skies were going to be cloudy and there was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body and I was to be born again . . . I was on a narrow path . . ."

The mushroom Mr. Down ate has a brown cap with white gills and is one of the same family as the beautiful, all-white Death Angel. It has the characteristic vulva—like a seed pod—out of which the stem grows.

Home, hale and healthy, Mr. Down has nothing but praise for the quick action which saved his life.

ALMOST nothing but praise . . . when he was recovering his strength in hospital he was offered soup for one meal—mushroom soup.

Mr. Down refused.

Williston Pledges New Look At Forest Land Reserves

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER—A new look will be taken at the government policy of placing reserves on land classed as forest land, Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston told the convention of B.C. Social Credit League here yesterday.

His statement follows a call in the Colonist by Comox MLA Dan Campbell (Social Credit) for a regional planning survey to be made of the north of Vancouver Island with a view to releasing crown land for development and settlement by private enterprise.

Mr. Campbell said there is hardly one acre available in the north Island for an individual to set up a tourist camp.

He charged that logging companies were adopting a "lord of the manor attitude."

Mr. Williston told the convention it has been the law since 1956 that forest land should not be sold.

He said a study will be made of the situation this year with a view to changing the act to handle the problem in a more realistic manner.

A resolution which will come to the convention floor today asks that all crown land within one mile of a public road be made available for public purchase.

Contains Stick and Clay Fireplace

Historic Cowichan Bay Cabin May Become District Museum

By CHARLES THOMPSON

DUNCAN—There is a movement afoot here to get a 96-year-old log cabin at Cowichan Bay for this district's museum.

The reason it is wanted as a museum is because the builders, Mathew and Thomas Marshall, built in it a stick and clay fireplace that was used until several years ago and is still in nearly perfect condition. The cabin is closely tied to the history of the district.

The brothers came from the north of England the year they built the cabin, almost on the site where Sir James Douglas landed two shiploads of this district's first settlers.

It is less than a quarter of a mile from the monument built by the Native Sons, Prevost Post, marking the spot where Robert Service, the Bard of the Yukon, lived for a time.

Built in 1863, the log cabin at Cowichan Bay where this stick and clay chimney stands—possibly the last on Vancouver Island—may become Cowichan's museum.—(Colonist photo by Charles Thompson.)

Thomas Marshall was a "character," says Miss E. Blanche, Cowichan historian. He was a Justice of the Peace and one of the first school trustees. He remained a bachelor.

He was the district's chief cougar hunter at the time and their boxy two-room cabin had many skins in it. In later years, two of their relations, John and Thomas Spears, moved in to take care of the old men. They continued to live in the cabin after the builders died.

Both the Spears were bachelors and they shared the cabin for many years.

John Spear achieved international recognition for his miniature penmanship. Some of his work is in the Smithsonian Institute.

He once wrote 12,125 words on the back of an ordinary postcard using an ordinary pen and he also wrote the Lord's Prayer twice on a space barely larger than the diameter of a lead pencil.

In Memory of Service

This stone seat, commemorating the life of Robert Service and the time he spent in the Cowichan Valley from 1894 to 1904, may be unveiled by his widow or daughter if they are in the district in the near future. Playing on the monument at Cowichan Bay that was built by the Prevost Post, Native Sons, is Alexander Thompson, 2, of Duncan.—(Colonist photo by Charles Thompson.)

Nanaimo Ban Lifted

Reopened Pubs Serving Again

NANAIMO — The five Nanaimo hotels closed down last week by the Liquor Control Board for refusing to serve 10-cent glasses of beer reopened yesterday morning . . . and sold the small beers on request.

But the public appeared largely to be favoring the 20-cent glass, although tests have shown that two 10-cent glasses hold three ounces more beer than the 20-cent glasses.

The closed beer parlors — the Somerset, Lotus, Plaza, Wellington and Nanaimo — had their licences reinstated Thursday in Victoria by LCB chairman Col. Donald McGugan.

"There was no mention of 10-cent beer or infractions," said one of the owners.

"Mr. McGugan asked if we knew the contents of the Liquor Act," said a spokesman, "and told us the hotels were to be run accordingly."

Late Thursday trucks were backing in with loads of beer to the beer parlors concerned, and at 10.30 a.m. Friday the taps were opened.

Meeting with Gaglardi Postponed Two Weeks

DUNCAN — A meeting between chamber of commerce members and highways minister P. A. Gaglardi has been postponed at least two weeks.

A meeting had been planned for early November to discuss straightening part of the Cowichan Lake Road west of here.

The meeting has now been put off until late in the month, chamber officials have learned but no date has been set.

The chamber wants to improve an eight-mile-long section of the twisting, narrow road. It would also cut out two railway crossings.

The chamber wants the work to be done next year. The minister has promised that the work will be done when money is available.

Crackers, But No Eggs In Cowichan

DUNCAN—Eggs and not fireworks have been banned here as Halloween missiles.

Police have warned local storekeepers that last year there were too many eggs splattered on cars, store windows and clothing — so the proprietors have been asked not to sell eggs to youngsters.

But despite the request, at least one store was sold out last night.

Last year eggs vied with soap for popularity among the younger set, who had running skirmishes with police and firemen down town.

Alberni Carries School Tax Case To Highest Court

OTTAWA—The City of Port Alberni Friday asked the Supreme Court of Canada to rule that MacMillan and Bloedel (Alberni) Limited, should be assessed for school tax purposes on an amount of $32,094,494 and not on $800,000 as claimed by the company.

The Supreme Court of British Columbia ruled that the company was liable for assessment on the larger amount but the appeal court of the province reversed this decision. The city is appealing against the appeal court's judgment.

The case dates back to 1945 when the company, formerly Bloedel, Stewart and Welch Limited, and the city, signed an agreement under which the company would build a pulp sulphite mill in Port Alberni.

The city agreed that the lands and improvements of the company would be assessed for school purposes for the 1946-1965 period at $100,000 for lands and $700,000 for improvements.

The agreement became binding after the city passed an empowering bylaw and the B.C. legislature approved an act ratifying the bylaw.

This was necessary because the period of the fixed assessment was longer than that authorized under the B.C. Municipal Act and the bylaw had not been submitted to electors.

The company's assessments were made under the agreement up to and including 1957, but in 1958 the company was assessed at $351,540 for land and $31,742,954 for improvements.

The city took this action under a provincial statute passed in 1953 which stipulated that "lands and improvements must be assessed at their actual value."

Ferry Names Nanaimo Man As Agent

NANAIMO — John Dunham has been appointed general passenger agent for Vancouver Island by Black Ball Ferries Ltd.

Capt. Jack L. Macauley, who commanded the MV Kahloke when the Horseshoe Bay-Nanaimo run began in 1953, has been appointed assistant manager of the company.

Mr. Dunham, a veteran of nine years in the Royal Navy and the British merchant service, joined the company in 1953.

Hundred Veterans to Mark Remembrance Day at Duncan

DUNCAN — More than 100 war veterans are expected to take part in the legion's Remembrance Day service Nov. 11 at the Cenotaph.

The solemn procession of men who took part in the First and Second World Wars and the Korean war, leave the old legion building on Government Street at 10.50 a.m., said president R. E. Evans last night.

The group's chaplain, Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh, will conduct the service, starting at 11 a.m. at the Cenotaph. He will be assisted by other district ministers.

Refreshments will be served after the service to those who took part in the parade. They will be served in the Eagles Hall.

The women's auxiliary will take charge of Poppy Day, Nov. 7, said Mr. Evans. The following Sunday there will be a church parade to St. Peter's Anglican Church Nov. 8, starting at 7.20 p.m.

Fine Screens Will Save Fingerlings

PORT ALBERNI — The Alberni pulp and paper mill is spending $87,000 to instal special moving water screens at its Sproat Lake plant to save the lives of fingerlings.

The decision was made by the company, a division of MacMillan and Bloedel, in cooperation with the federal fisheries department.

FINE MESH SCREENS

Construction of the new, fine mesh screens will begin immediately. The screens will not only keep fingerlings out of the well from which water is drawn, but it will also keep out smaller debris.

A concrete well, some 20 feet square, will be built with screens on two sides. The screens will travel, like an endless belt, from the bottom of the well to the top, carrying debris and fingerlings with it.

WASHED OFF

At the surface the debris and small fish will be washed off the screens.

With the screens at present installed, some smelts slip through the mesh and others are trapped against it by the force of water.

Fulford Bridge To Start Soon

GANGES—George St. Denis, Salt Spring Island forman for the department of public works, has been notified that an appropriation has gone through for the construction of a new bridge at Fulford.

The contract has been awarded and the construction is expected to start soon.

Island residents have been campaigning for a new bridge for some years. Loads have been limited on the existing bridge for several years.

$20,000 Job Plan Suggested

CAMPBELL RIVER — The village commission is seeking approval of a $20,000 winter work program to help alleviate seasonal unemployment.

The plan, if approved by both the federal and provincial governments, will cost the commission only $5,000. The federal government pays 50 per cent of the labor cost providing certain conditions are met, and the provincial government pays some 25 per cent.

PROJECTS PLANNED

Projects included in the plan:

Building of sidewalks in the downtown area.

Cleaning-up of parks and the grounds around the pumphouse.

Construction of a road behind the village hall.

DITCH CLEARING

Clearing of ditches and boulevards.

Building of dressing rooms at Lane Field and clearing-up the parking area, and Improvements to the cemetery area.

Freak Mid-Air Collision Kills Duck, Jars Fish

COWICHAN BAY—A fish that was swimming too high and a duck that was flying too low collided above Cowichan Bay Thursday—with dire results for the duck.

Phil McMillan, 20, of Anchor Marina, was guiding four Canadian and United States businessmen on a coho expedition Thursday morning when the freak collision occurred.

They saw a coho leap out of the water, about 100 yards away, and collide with one of 12 low-flying ducks.

The duck fell with a broken neck and the fish dropped back into the water and disappeared.

Nanaimo Charge

Victim of Delay To Await Trial

NANAIMO — Tourist John Saiko, 27, of Wildwood, Alta., who has waited four weeks for the hearing of a minor traffic charge here, said Friday he decided to stay and prove his innocence to avoid placing his Alberta driving licence in jeopardy.

Mr. Saiko was charged with failing to yield right of way to a bus, as a result of an accident here Oct. 2. Normal fine for the offence is $10.

The case has been remanded several times because of inability of the crown to have prosecution witnesses present. Magistrate Lionel Beevor-Potts adjourned the case to Monday when it was called Thursday and said it will not be adjourned again.

Mr. Saiko's lawyer, Ron MacIsaac, said Friday Mr. Saiko would risk increased insurance premiums as well as jeopardizing his licence if he pleaded guilty in order to dispose of the case.

He said there was damage both to Mr. Saiko's car and the bus and this fact further complicated the issue.

The lawyer said there is no provision in law for compensation of his client for the expense he has been put to as a result of the delay in the case, even if the court finds him innocent of the offence charged.

Elementary School Convention

Start Them Well Teachers Urged

Elementary schools should "teach something—give a body of knowledge for later building."

They should build character, develop intellect, and be given an opportunity to do their work with a better measure of continuity, under better conditions.

SOME OF POINTS

These were some of the points developed yesterday by a panel discussing "The elementary school — its place in the community" before an intent audience of 1,000 elementary school teachers from all over Vancouver Island.

Their convention began yesterday at North Saanich High School and ends today.

Panelists, under chairmanship of W. V. Allester of the B.C. Teachers' Federation, included Prof. Tony Emery, Victoria College; Archie Mercer, supervising principal, Brechin schools, Nanaimo; Ronald Weir, chairman, Sooke school board, and Mrs. A. B. Thompson, provincial Parent-Teachers' Federation.

NON-NATIVE

Prof. Emery, only non-native of Vancouver Island on the panel, said he had no direct experience with elementary education in this province, but had encountered their products in junior high school and in college.

The elementary teacher, he thought, should do his best to see that a child learns something and gains a body of knowledge on which the youngster and his teachers could build later.

REMARKABLE JOB

A "remarkable job," he said, was being done in the first two grades of school, especially considering the big classes.

"I have been amazed at the size of these classes. In the Old Country teachers would throw up their hands in dismay at such big groups."

Building of character was pointed up by Mrs. Thompson as a principal aim for elementary schools. With it she coupled development of good teacher-pupil relations.

TREMENDOUS SALARY

"I think primary teachers should be paid a tremendous salary," she said — and drew a warm round of applause.

Aims of the elementary school, said Mr. Weir, should be basically to develop intellect, promote moral discipline, and provide a basis for earning a living.

"A teacher cannot handle with best results a class of 40 to 42 pupils. The sooner we get down to classes of about 25 the better. Until we do, there is no way of remedying the situation that develops in later grades."

Lazy Canvassers Blamed for Lag In Chest Drive

Laggard canvassers are letting down the Community Chest campaign and the people of Victoria, campaign chairman Eric Mallett said yesterday.

"Many hundreds of our volunteer canvassers have done their job well, far beyond the call of duty," Mr. Mallett said yesterday. "But there is a large group of canvassers who are letting down Victorians, who have been most generous, and undermining the efforts of fellow-canvassers.

"If these canvassers do not complete the jobs to which they have been assigned, the campaign will fall far short of its target. These people alone will be responsible."

Yesterday's campaign total was $222,167.20. Officials have an over-all objective of $325,000, and a special target of $300,000 by Wednesday, official closing date of the drive.

In order to facilitate collection of monies which have not been turned in by canvassers, "drop-off points" will be set up starting Monday at Eaton's Service Centre, the Hudson's Bay Information Centre, and all chartered banks.

Former Archbishop Operated Upon

Former Archbishop of Montreal, Joseph Charbonneau, underwent surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday for an acute abdominal condition.

Although doctors described the operation as satisfactory, Archbishop Charbonneau remained in serious condition in hospital where he is being treated for a heart condition.

He came here from Montreal nine years ago and since 1957 has suffered recurring heart trouble.

Everybody's Happy

Ferry Firm's Pride Tests Sidney's Pride

Successful testing yesterday of Sidney's pride, the new government wharf, by Washington State Ferries' pride, Evergreen State, is heralded as a sure sign that Sidney "is becoming the new transportation centre of lower Vancouver Island."

"Sidney can't miss," said C. E. Blaney, the ferry company's representative here. The firm operates ferries between Sidney and Anacortes, Wash.

"Our business has gone up 105 per cent in five years," he said. "And there's no doubt that the new wharf is going to be a tremendous aid to service."

The newest and proudest vessel in the WSF fleet, which loaded and unloaded at the wharf and found it a "perfect fit," will become a regular on the run, said Mr. Blaney.

"There's hardly a trailer rig or load on the highways today that they can't handle between them," he said. The old wharf had been limited to loads under 20,000 tons.

The federal government wharf will really hit its stride in the spring when it will be accommodating the two ferries for the Sidney-Tsawwassen run. In addition, WSF may be expanding its service, agent Blaney indicated.

Thief Hits Pensioner Cruel Blow

A hallway thief struck a cruel blow to an elderly Victoria pensioner this week.

Mrs. Isobel Fyvie, of 1118 Quadra, told city police that someone had stolen her old-age pension cheque for $55, some time between 10.30 a.m. and 3 p.m. Wednesday. It's loss leaves her with only $20 until the next cheque comes —and only $20 in her possession.

The cheque was stolen from a hallway ledge in the rooming house where she lives.

Race Bias, Trade Stamps

Fluorides, Shipbuilding Pondered by Chamber

Fluoridation, funds for tourist publicity, racial discrimination, shipbuilding contracts and trading stamps kept Victoria Chamber of Commerce directors busy for more than two hours yesterday.

Ira Hill chairman of the fluoridation committee reported that since the chamber had endorsed fluoridation, a number of rebuffs had been met including opposition in Esquimalt, but he hoped that the other Victoria communities, as well as Oak Bay, would agree to a December referendum on the subject.

"We are fairly confident most of them will do so," he said.

$1,000 ASKED

Eric Mallett said the chamber's support of fluoridation was one of the most important things it had tackled and he asked for funds up to $1,000 from the chamber to support the drive by the fluoridation committee.

Mr. Mallett said that if Oak Bay alone were to take a referendum he thought the full support of the chamber should be directed towards the campaign in that municipality.

Fred Hawes, who is an Oak Bay councillor as well as a chamber director, pointed out that even if Oak Bay electors approved fluoridation it was not the intention of the municipality to introduce fluorides alone.

TOO COSTLY

"It would be too costly a proceeding" he said.

Despite that Mr. Mallett persuaded the directors to recommend that the executive committee of the chamber make funds available to the fluoridation committee with a maximum of $1,000.

The chamber was also asked to supply funds to an Associated Chambers of Vancouver Island project for a co-operative effort aimed at promoting travel to all parts of the Island.

Urging support for the co-operative Vancouver Island project, Ian Ross said that tourism in the next few years might rank as one of the three leading industries in the province.

Peter Forward, reporting for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, said his group had taken an active part in a recent case of racial discrimination in Victoria, and said that the efforts made to give publicity to the case had met with considerable success.

W. A. Laudrum, retiring chairman of the retail merchants group, who is leaving shortly to take up a new position in New York, said that there was little likelihood of trading stamps becoming an issue in Victoria.

COUNCIL MATTER

He said that this was a matter for the city council, as the city charter empowered it to revoke the licences of any firm using this form of marketing.

Logger Bunkhouse Thief Jailed for Six Months

COWICHAN LAKE — A 20-year-old logger from Caycuse Camp has been sentenced to six months on each of three charges of theft from a bunkhouse. The sentences will be served concurrently.

Donald R. Genge, formerly of Montreal, pleaded guilty to the charges after being taken from the cells at Duncan where he was serving 10 days for failing to pay a $10 fine.

The thefts at the camp Oct. 21 involved two watches and $12 in cash from fellow workers at the B.C. Forest Products Ltd. camp.

He first appeared in Cowichan Lake court Saturday but the case was remanded for sentencing by Magistrate C. L. Anderson so he could see Genge's record.

Genge was arrested at Duncan in a beer parlor Oct. 22, when he and Guy Richards, 19, of Victoria, refused to leave after being told to get out twice.

The following day they were fined $10 each when they pleaded guilty to charges of being minors in licenced premises. They could not pay the fines and were sentenced to 10 days.

Chosen area vice-presidents were W. Crosby of Courtenay and A. Y. Johnson of Parksville. A vice-president for Campbell River district will be chosen by the executive.

★ ★ ★

LADYSMITH — The village commission is seeking an early conference with Highways Minister P. A. Gaglardi to press for a public access road to the Ladysmith Boat Basin.

All the Wonder of Halloween

All the wonder and excitement that is Halloween to the very young has obviously touched three - year - old Karen Moffit, left, 531 Toronto, and two-year-old Debbie Whyte, 72 Dallas Road, as they prepare their jack-o-lantern for tonight's activity. They got an early start yesterday at a party held by the James Bay Co-operative Kindergarten.—(Colonist photo.)

BONNER ATTACKS 'SILLY CRITICISM'

Seek to Destroy Public Gratitude

By ALEC MERRIMAN
Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Attorney-General Robert Bonner lashed out yesterday at what he termed "fatuous criticism" by CCF leader Robert Strachan and other opposition critics.

They seek to destroy public appreciation of the great things the Social Credit government has done, he said.

He spoke of "irresponsible accusation" and silliness" of charges made by opposition parties.

DESTROY APPRECIATION

"They are trying to destroy the public appreciation of what has been done," he told some 400 delegates to the B.C. Social Credit League convention meeting at PNE Garden Auditorium here.

"The people of this province are entitled to be talked to in terms of fact . . . the calibre of debate by leaders of other parties is an insult to the intelligence of the voters of this province," he boomed across the convention floor.

He called upon the Social Credit League to organize and distribute factual information and distribute it on a wide scale.

TELL THE PUBLIC

"It is your duty to be informed and tell the public the facts of this party's seven years of good government," he said.

"It is the height of silliness to hear some of the things said about public accounting," he said. "It is just silly talk to talk about irregular bookkeeping in the provincial administration. These books are available to the public accounts committee of the legislature . . . a whole army of experts in the finance department keeps the records straight . . . they simply keep the books and we tell you what they find."

ARROGANT NONSENSE

He said that anyone who charged patronage in the Socred government was talking "arrogant nonsense."

"Patronage," he said. "If the Liberals didn't invent it, the Conservatives perfected it."

Education Minister Leslie Peterson said his department is not completely satisfied with the school program of studies and indicated some changes will be made after the Chant report is received.

NO ONE KNOWS

"This year B.C. was fortunate in escaping a polio epidemic," Health Minister Eric Martin told the convention. "No one knows and we can only guess how much the Salk vaccine had to do with the number of cases," he said. He pointed out there were only 73 cases so far this year, compared with 700 in 1953.

"More and more of our people are seeing more and more of B.C. . . . and we think that is good," Recreation Minister Earle Westwood said.

Provincial Secretary and Municipal Affairs Minister Wesley Black said the government does not favor the Murison formula for a revised plan for municipal financing.

"It wouldn't work," he said.

'B.C. Socreds Deserting Grass Roots'

(Colonist Staff Reporter)

VANCOUVER — Cyril Shelford, maverick Social Credit member from Omineca, told convention delegates here yesterday that the B.C. Social Credit League is slipping away from its grass-roots organization.

He also charged that an Omineca resolution demanding an accounting of Social Credit funds had been kept from the floor of the convention for three years in a row.

THROWN OUT

"If you put in contentious resolutions and they are thrown out before coming to the convention floor, people say what is the use of coming to a convention," he said.

The Omineca resolution, he said, had asked for a five-member board of trustees to be set up to handle campaign funds. The premier would be chairman, two men would be elected by party caucus, the B.C. Social Credit president would be a member, as would the president of the women's Socred group.

IDEA APPROVED

Mr. Shelford said his idea had received the approval of the retired national Socred leader Solon Low, who had said it might not be desirable for any or all of the trustees to know where the campaign funds come from, but it was certainly comendable that they should know where the money goes.

Mr. Shelford said some of the blame for the resolution not reaching the floor must rest with league president Noel Murphy.

He nominated Mrs. Evelyn Fingarson of Vancouver-East to oppose Mr. Murphy for the presidency, but Mr. Murphy, who has been president for six years, won out in the balloting.

BROWN RE-ELECTED

Victoria Socred Archie Brown was re-elected second vice-president; Don Reiggan of Delta, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Fingarson, sixth vice-president.

He said there were too many speeches yesterday afternoon when cabinet members gave reports.

"There should be more time for resolutions and reports from local groups. Small groups are the most important part of any party.

"I would like to hear how they operate," he said.

Mr. Shelford said he does not know of any accounting now in use for Social Credit campaign funds.

He expressed amazement that resolutions were being kept from the convention floor.

Two years ago a resolution was passed asking for all resolutions to come to the floor of the convention, or a reason to be given why not.

"I just want to see the Social Credit League get as strong as it ever was," he said.

Hunter with two kangaroos to his credit is Hugh Shantz of Vernon, B.C.'s speaker of the legislature now on a business trip to Australia. Mr. Shantz, MLA for North Okanagan, wrote to his home in Vernon that he had shot the two animals.

Canadian Proposal

Radiation Plan Tabled at UN

UNITED NATIONS (CP)—Canada Friday night tabled in the United Nations its proposal for a worldwide study on atomic radiation, with eight co-sponsoring countries from the Commonwealth, Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Austria, Ghana, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Mexico, New Zealand and Norway were the co-sponsors. There had been prolonged behind-the-scenes negotiations with Communist countries but no co-sponsorship was obtained from that area.

The resolution tabled Friday night—worded in general terms—will likely not come up for debate in the General Assembly or committee for a week or 10 days.

Lawmakers Sit Jan. 28

VANCOUVER — The British Columbia legislature will convene Jan. 28, Premier W. A. C. Bennett announced here last night.

It will be the fourth session of the 25th legislature of the province.

Current party standings are Social Credit 38, CCF 10, Liberal 3, Independent Labor 1

Tickets Go, Go, Go

Football Frenzy Hits Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—"It's worse than during the Grey Cup," said a tired ticket seller at B.C. Lions downtown office here.

"It's been go, go, go all week. And yesterday we had people lined up at 5 a.m. waiting to get tickets. The lineup was a block long when we opened."

More than 30,000 tickets have been sold for the first Western Interprovincial Football Union playoff game ever here.

Edmonton Eskimos, in their ninth straight playoff, meet British Columbia Lions, in their first, in a two-game total-point semi-final series. Kick-off time is 2 p.m. today. The telecast will be blacked out here and in Victoria, but the game will be broadcast.

Lions general manager Herb Capozzi predicted a crowd of at least 35,000.

"We could come pretty close to the all-time record set here in the 1955 Grey Cup game. That was 39,417."

Four Arrests In Wine Theft

Saanich police had made four arrests by last night on an around-the-clock investigation being carried out on the theft of 50 gallons of wine from Growers Wine Co. Ltd., 3948 Quadra. Police have recovered 28 gallons.

Entry was discovered at 1.20 a.m. yesterday by police making their checks.

Funsters: Behave Or Else

Requesting co-operation by the public in making this a sane Halloween and purely fun for the young, police chiefs of Greater Victoria yesterday added a stinger:

"Any sign of vandalism or hoodlumism will be dealt with promptly and severely."

Police Chief John Blackstock of Victoria said every uniformed man on his force would be on duty tonight—all shifts.

Island Girl, 6, Polio Victim

Vancouver Island's 13th polio victim, six-year-old Robin Erickson of Lake Cowichan was brought to Royal Jubilee Hospital last night by her parents.

The girl did not suffer paralysis in any of her limbs and was reported in satisfactory condition at hospital. She was not placed in an iron lung.

Boy's Eye Damaged

Permanent eye damage was reported yesterday by doctors attending nine-year-old Larry Lysne, of 3204 Kingsley, who was taken to hospital Monday after a firecracker exploded in the end of a wooden penholder he was holding in his hand.

Won't Leave B.C. Bennett's Pledge

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER — Premier Bennett yesterday told some 400 Social Credit convention delegates here he couldn't be taken away from British Columbia for the national Socred leadership, or anything else.

"There is so much to be done in the great and glorious 1960s and I am staying here to do it," he said over the thundering cheers of the delegates.

"I have lost only one election in my career. That is when I went federal and that is another reason I will never go federal again," he said.

"The only election I ever lost was when Diefenbaker was on my committee and campaigned for me," he laughed. (Continued on Page 5.)

Island Man Survives

Deadliest Known Mushroom

'I Felt My Left Side Dying'

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . . There was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body."

With these words yesterday William C. Down, of Ladysmith, tried to describe what it is like to eat three of the most poisonous variety of mushroom known. Mr. Down is believed to be the only person in the world who has eaten the deadly Amanita Russuloides . . . and miraculously lived.

Mr. Down just barely managed to hold onto life. An emetic given promptly at Nanaimo's general hospital is believed to have saved his life.

Yesterday, well again, he visited Victoria with samples of the mushrooms to have them identified by Dr. Adam Szczawinski, provincial botanist.

"I saw them by the road," Mr. Down said. "I'm very fond of mushrooms so I said to my wife that I was going to stew them.

"They were quite nice. I offered some to my wife and she said 'No, one of us has to be alive.'

"Two hours after, she was shopping in Nanaimo and I was sitting in the car. I felt sleepy and on the way home, about a mile, I got in the back of the car and laid down."

Mrs. Down drove her husband to a service station, the attendant called an ambulance and Mr. Down was taken to Nanaimo hospital.

WILLIAM C. DOWN

After the emetic Mr. Down felt better, but he went to sleep soon afterwards. He slept for 14 hours.

"I had all sorts of hallucinations," he said. "I imagined I was going to be on the TV and everyone in this world would hear me, as I had discovered the origin of man . . . he had gone to his death point and began to live again . . .

"Things were falling in around me . . . I felt the left side of my body was dying although the right side was all right . . .

"I had one or two experiences in the First World War, coming close to death, and then people kept visiting me in my dreams. It happened again.

"Later on the skies were going to be cloudy and there was going to be an atomic explosion and that was to be my body and I was to be born again . . . I was on a narrow path . . ."

The mushroom Mr. Down ate has a brown cap with white gills and is one of the same family as the beautiful, all-white Death Angel. It has the characteristic vulva—like a seed pod—out of which the stem grows.

Home, hale and healthy, Mr. Down has nothing but praise for the quick action which saved his life.

ALMOST nothing but praise . . . when he was recovering his strength in hospital he was offered soup for one meal—mushroom soup.

Mr. Down refused.

Williston Pledges New Look At Forest Land Reserves

By Colonist Staff Reporter

VANCOUVER—A new look will be taken at the government policy of placing reserves on land classed as forest land, Lands and Forests Minister Ray Williston told the convention of B.C. Social Credit League here yesterday.

His statement follows a call in the Colonist by Comox MLA Dan Campbell (Social Credit) for a regional planning survey to be made of the north of Vancouver Island with a view to releasing crown land for development and settlement by private enterprise.

Mr. Campbell said there is hardly one acre available in the north Island for an individual to set up a tourist camp.

He charged that logging companies were adopting a "lord of the manor attitude."

Mr. Williston told the convention it has been the law since 1956 that forest land should not be sold.

He said a study will be made of the situation this year with a view to changing the act to handle the problem in a more realistic manner.

A resolution which will come to the convention floor today asks that all crown land within one mile of a public road be made available for public purchase.
